

Teacher Seeds

© 2001 by Shirley Thomas
@ CraftSayings.com

Kids are like seeds
you plant in the soil.
Each takes patience,
nurturing and toil.

You are a great teacher.
You do your job well,
planting seeds of knowledge.
Just look at us to tell.

Now plant these seeds
and over each one fuss,
so they'll grow up bright
to remind you of us!

Maisha T. Fisher,2007 In this book Maisha Fisher invites us to pull up a chair and listen in as young people insert their own rhythms into school life But this book is not a simple celebration of student voice It is an ethnographic account of the teaching and learning processes through which lived or longed for experience was disciplined into verbal rhythms From the Foreword by Anne Haas Dyson University of Illinois Urbana Champaign author of The Brothers and Sisters Learn to Write Prepare to rethink the role of popular youth culture in the classroom This work demonstrates some of the most respected theories of learning put into action through the roles and rules of young people s poetry We leave this work alive and alert to ways that youth culture can transcend generations everyday identities and life disruptions Shirley Brice Heath Professor at Large Brown University This dynamic book examines how literacy learning can be expanded and redefined using the medium of spoken word poetry The author tells the story of a passionate Language Arts teacher and his work with The Power Writers an after school writing community of Latino and African American students Featuring rich portraits of literacy in action this book introduces teaching practices for fostering peer support generating new vocabulary discussing issues of Standard American English and using personal experiences as literary inspiration Drawing from literature in both literacy research and cultural studies this book Provides a model for incorporating open mic formats and the public sharing of reading and writing in literacy classes with urban youth Shows how teachers can approach teaching with profound respect for student cultures languages and life experiences Offers a new way of talking about literacy with urban high school students including new terminology generated by the teachers and students Explores what it means for Language Arts teachers to be practitioners of the craft Tennessee Teacher ,1960 The School News and Practical Educator ,1908 The Intelligence ,1904 Speak Up 2 Teacher's Manual1st Ed. 2007 , Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1923

Sowing the Seeds of Character Judd Kruger Levingston,2009-06-08 A rabbi and educator shows how moral education can be crafted to address each of the three main branches of the moral life philosophy civics and ethics Sowing the Seeds of Character The Moral Education of Adolescents in Public and Private Schools is a book for all teachers and parents It rests on the premise that the moral education of students falls within the purview of schools whether they assume responsibility for it or not Regardless of the place of moral education in the formal curriculum all teachers serve as moral exemplars to their students for good or for ill Teachers of science social studies history and literature courses cannot help but inculcate moral sensibility and attitudes in their students by the ways in which they lead them to grapple with or glide over the moral implications of what they teach Judd Kruger Levingston draws many lessons and examples from his extensive research and teaching experience in Muslim Jewish Roman Catholic public Quaker and Chinese schools He argues that teachers should become proficient in directing role playing simulations of moral decision making as morally complex topics arise within the standard curriculum Soul Murmurs Anita Neilson, 2019-07-26 From the author of Acts of Kindness from your Armchair and the uplifting Healing Words blog comes this new offering for those seeking deeper meaning to life Soul Murmurs is a must have collection of poetry and prose imbued with spiritual wisdom from east and west Each page resonating with peace and calm offers comfort and moments of reflection in a fast moving world In this compilation you will discover meditative verses which speak to the heart and soul silent cries of longing for meaning joyful searching for the Divine within and in the wider world autobiographical vignettes offering insight on aspects of human life that we all experience Gathered under seasonal headings to echo the eternal cycle of life each page reverberates with inspiration spiritual encouragement and suggested action points to uplift the reader throughout the year Popular Educator ,1925 The Business Educator ,1924

Since ancient times music has demonstrated the incomparable ability to touch and resonate with the human spirit as a tool for communication emotional expression and as a medium of cultural identity During World War II Nazi leadership recognized the power of music and chose to harness it with malevolence using its power to push their own agenda and systematically stripping it away from the Jewish people and other populations they sought to disempower But music also emerged as a counterpoint to this hate withstanding Nazi attempts to exploit or silence it Artistic expression triumphed under oppressive regimes elsewhere as well including the horrific siege of Leningrad and in Japanese internment camps in the Pacific The oppressed stubbornly clung to music wherever and however they could to preserve their culture to uplift the human spirit and to triumph over oppression even amid incredible tragedy and suffering This volume draws together the musical connections and individual stories from this tragic time through scholarly literature diaries letters memoirs compositions and art pieces Collectively they bear witness to the power of music and offer a reminder to humanity of the imperative each faces to not only remember but to prevent another such cataclysm I Like Being Catholic Michael Leach, Therese J. Borchard, 2007-12-18 A celebration of the treasured traditions rituals and stories that run through the bloodstream of American Catholics For Andrew Greeley it is the reverence of Christmas night and the exultation of Easter morn Martin Scorsese like many others remains grateful for the nuns who rapped his knuckles but built his self esteem Mary Gordon recalls the sense of lightness that follows confession Vince Lombardi the strength he derived from Mass and Christopher Buckley the role St Thomas More plays in his writing I Like Being Catholic brings together the memories thought and hopes of famous Catholics and ordinary parishioners lapsed and good enough Catholics and those who have devoted their lives to the faith It captures their abiding ties to and deep affection for the Church and offers the wide ranging sometimes surprising views on the good things that come with being Catholic This is not a book of theology It is about the beauty at the heart of Catholicism It is about what Teilhard de Chardin called the chosen part of things It is about family and community the value of Catholic education the significance of sacraments and milestones and the cultural impact of Catholicism there are lists of the ten best Catholic novels the ten best Catholic movies ten Catholic heroes of the twentieth century ten good reasons to raise your kids Catholic fifty things Catholics like best about being Catholic and much more I Like Being Catholic is a book for all those who have ever called themselves Catholic It is a book of warmth affection humor and love
