This book provides the theory behind integration of reading and writing throughout the stages of literacy development PK-12. It explores strategies and resources for supporting others as they provide literacy instruction. Teachers, literacy coaches, and district leaders will be a particular focus of the book as they need to be prepared to help their faculty integrate reading and writing in their institutions. Each chapter begins with a scenario or example from K-12 to flesh out the ideas presented in the chapter. Followed by an anticipation guide, the chapter delves into the learner characteristics, various genres, text.

characteristics and major concepts encountered during each stage of development This theoretical background is followed by five examples of stage appropriate genre illustrating strategies for integrating reading and writing instruction The chapter concludes with activities readers could engage in to deepen their understanding of the concepts presented Read, Discuss, and Learn Lisa A. Fisher, 2010-08-16 Literacy groups promote discussion and learning through the exploration of text but many educators are hesitant to adopt them For current and future secondary teachers administrators and curriculum directors Read Discuss and Learn provides support and guidance so educators can confidently involve students within the learning process at a deep level This is a practical resource guide that walks teachers through the use of literacy groups within their classrooms over a typical 365 day journey of secondary students The author provides educators with the tools to think about literacy groups to create literacy groups and to design the best assessment to adequately evaluate students comprehension and mastery of new content The WINNERS! Handbook Judy Freeman, 2006-04-30 Freeman has developed a comprehensive handbook with thoroughly annotated lists of the 2005 s best childrens books lesson plans teachers guides stories songs and Internet resources It includes an index

Topologies of the Classical World in Children's Fiction Claudia Nelson, Anne Morey, 2019-10-24 Beginning with Rudyard Kipling and Edith Nesbit and concluding with best selling series still ongoing at the time of writing this volume examines works of twentieth and twenty first century children s literature that incorporate character types settings and narratives derived from the Greco Roman past Drawing on a cognitive poetics approach to reception studies it argues that authors typically employ a limited and powerful set of spatial metaphors palimpsest map and fractal to organize the classical past for preteen and adolescent readers Palimpsest texts see the past as a collection of strata in which each new era forms a layer superimposed upon a foundation laid earlier map texts use the metaphor of the mappable journey to represent a protagonist s process of maturing while gaining knowledge of the self and or the world fractal texts in which small parts of the narrative are thematically identical to the whole present the past in a way that implies that history is infinitely repeatable While a given text may embrace multiple metaphors in presenting the past associations between dominant metaphors genre and outlook emerge from the case studies examined in each chapter revealing remarkable thematic continuities in how the past is represented and how agency is attributed to protagonists each model it is suggested uses the classical past to urge and thus perhaps to develop a particular approach to life
