A Flash of Golden Fire Thomas Elsner, 2025-05-01 In the early twentieth century C G Jung survived an intense encounter with the unconscious He did this by giving expression to his inner world in the paintings and dialogues found in the Red Book Yet Jung felt alone in this work unable to find a precedent or cultural parallel until he discovered alchemy This ancient protoscience became the bridge Jung had been seeking between the remote past and the present Yet between the downfall of alchemy in the eighteenth century and Jung's Red Book in the twentieth it seems that there was a gap in the tradition According to Jungian analyst and author Thomas Elsner Samuel Taylor Coleridge's great visionary poem The Rime of the Ancient Mariner is another link in that golden chain In Elsner's analysis Coleridge's nineteenth century night sea journey can today be understood as a symbolic self portrait of the collective unconscious a self portrait that like the Red Book finds its historical context and continuity in the alchemical tradition Continuing the highly esteemed works arising from the Fay Lecture Series sponsored by the Jung Center Houston Elsner's A Flash of Golden Fire: The Birth, Death and Rebirth of the Modern Soul in Coleridge's The Rime of the Ancient Mariner promises to further extend the understanding and appreciation of Jungian principles for practitioners analysts others interested in Jungian theory and practice the psychological dimensions of Romantic poetry and the evolution of Western consciousness
