Religion And Place Landscape Politics And Piety:

Religion and Place Peter Hopkins, Lily Kong, Elizabeth Olson, 2012-09-13 This unique collection highlights the importance of landscape politics and piety to our understandings of religion and place The geographies of religion have developed rapidly in the last couple of decades and this book provides both a conceptual framing of the key issues and debates involved and rich illustrations through empirical case studies The chapters span the discipline of human geography and cover contexts as diverse as veiling in Turkey religious landscapes in rural Peru and refugees and faith in South Africa A number of prominent scholars and emerging researchers examine topical themes in each engaging chapter with significant foci being religious transnationalism and religious landscapes gendering of religious identities and contexts fashion faith and the body identity resistance and belief immigrant identities citizenship and spaces of belief alternative spiritualities and places of retreat and enchantment Together they make a series of important contributions that illuminate the central role of geography to the meaning and implications of lived religion public piety and religious embodiment As such this collection will be of much interest to researchers and students working on topics relating to religion and place including human geographers sociologists religious studies and religious education scholars The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media Re-imagining Religion and Belief Baker, Christopher, Crisp,

Beth R.,2018-08-29 The need to reimagine religion and belief is precipitated by their greater visibility in public life Meanwhile social policy responses often see them from a problem based rather than an asset based approach However with growing diversity of religion and belief in every sector comes the potential for new dialogues across previously impermeable policy and disciplinary silos This volume brings together leading international authors to critically consider these challenges within legal and policy frameworks including security and cohesion welfare law health and social care inequality cohesion extremism migration and abuse It challenges policy makers to re imagine religion and belief as an integral part of public life that contains resources practices forms of knowledge and experience that are essential to a coherent policy approach to diversity enhanced democracy and participation Geographies of Religious Spaces and Sacred Landscapes Darius

Liutikas,2025-07-15 This illuminating book explores the pivotal role of sacred landscapes in today s globalized world analysing the latest research of how political social and historical factors influence their creation preservation and transformation It examines the significance of sacred landscapes in shaping social identity and community history providing valuable insights into their rich heritage and evolving traditions Handbook of the Geographies of Religion Lily Kong,Orlando Woods,Justin K.H. Tse,2024-12-02 This international and interdisciplinary handbook offers a comprehensive and an in depth overview of contemporary research theory and practice in the geographies of religion in various parts of the world and with different populations The book showcases the major theoretical interventions in the field and the debates about the existential constitution of sacred space and what this means for secularization It outlines the most significant geographical themes related to these new developments with their implications for how to think about landscapes space bodies and worlds The book also discusses the future of the field especially in the realms of encounters and ethics economies and markets institutions and organisations movements and migrations and media and mediums It also offers views from disciplines outside of geography including from sociology anthropology religious studies and media and communications which demonstrates the contributions of geographers of religion to wider intellectual conversations and debates

Geographies of Postsecularity Paul Cloke,Christopher Baker,Callum Sutherland,Andrew Williams,2019-01-03 This book explores the hopeful possibility that emerging geographies of postsecularity are able to contribute significantly to the understanding of how common life may be shared and how caring for the common goods of social justice well being equality solidarity and respect for difference may be imagined and practiced Drawing on recent geographic theory to recalibrate ideas of the postsecular public sphere the authors develop the case for postsecularity as a condition of being that is characterised by practices of receptive generosity rapprochement between religious and secular ethics and a hopeful re enchantment and re shaping of desire towards common life The authors highlight the contested formation of ethical subjectivity under neoliberalism and the emergence of postsecularity within this process as an ethically attuned politics which changes relations between religion and secularity and animates novel hopeful imaginations subjectivities and praxes

as alternatives to neoliberal norms The spaces and subjectivities of emergent postsecularity are examined through a series of innovative case studies including food banks drug and alcohol treatment refugee humanitarian activism in Calais homeless participatory art projects community responses to the Christchurch earthquakes in New Zealand amongst others The book also traces the global conditions for postsecularity beyond the Western and predominantly Christian secular nexus of engagement This is a valuable resource for students in several academic disciplines including geography sociology politics religious studies international development and anthropology It will be of great interest to secular and faith based practitioners working in religion spirituality politics or more widely in public policy urban planning and community development The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Cultural and Social Geography Ishan Ashutosh, Jamie

Geographies of Migration Richard Wright, 2018-02-02 Migration is an enormously broad topic of academic enquiry engaging researchers from many different social science disciplines A wide variety of contributors from across the globe capture some of the methodological and conceptual range of migration research in the discipline of Geography today This volume covers a large area geographically and in the expanse of subject areas involved eighteen chapters investigate migration from to or within at least fifteen countries with several sections spanning multiple places and scales Many chapters are deeply concerned with vulnerable populations which is not only a characteristic of much immigration scholarship but also one that connects with other areas of geography The study of geographical assertions of sovereign power via the discourses of disorder chaos and crisis shows that in these transnational times national power is being violently reasserted on within and beyond international borders Other important topics covered include migration and climate change illegality security government policy labor family and sexual orientation This book was previously published as a special issue of Annals of the Association of American Geographers

Print and the Urdu Public Megan Eaton Robb, 2021 Print and the Urdu Public Muslims Newspapers and Urban Life in Colonial India addresses Urdu print publics from the perspective of Madinah newspaper published in Bijnor qasbah of the then United Provinces in order to demonstrate how an Urdu newspaper published from the margins became central to the Muslim public constituted in the first half of the twentieth century

Pious Fashion Liz Bucar, 2017-09-04 For many Westerners the veil is the ultimate sign of women's oppression But Liz Bucar's take on Muslim women's clothing is a far cry from this attitude She invites readers to join her in three Muslim majority nations as she surveys pious fashion from head to toe and shows how Muslim women approach the question What to wear with style

The Politics of Sacred Places Nimrod Luz, 2023-09-07 The Politics of Sacred Places is a study of the socio political dimensions of sacred sites in Israel Palestine drawing on over 20 years of in depth ethnographic research which introduces cutting edge theories on secularization struggles for recognition and diversity issues This book focuses on contemporary sacred sites and their socio political meanings for minorities within a hegemonic and a secularizing state system It argues that sacred places provide a space that is less scrutinized by the state and where alternative visions of the socio political may be produced A plethora of sites and case studies are examined including the rural shrine of Maqam abu al Hijja in the lower Galilee the Mosque of Hassan Bek in the heart of Tel Aviv Jaffa and the most disputed sacred place in the region the Haram al Sharif in Jerusalem These sites are explored through mostly a phenomenological lens and in various contexts from the individual body to the global This book offers a critical analytical study of the socio political aspects of sacred sites in contemporary societies within the broader understanding of scale and the spatial turn in the study of religion

Relative Strangers Arpan Roy, 2024-11-30 Examining how memory intergenerational transmission and kinship work together Relative Strangers sheds light on Romani life in Palestine Arpan Roy presents an ethnographic portrait of Dom Romani communities living between Palestine and Jordan zooming in on everyday life in working class neighborhoods and under conditions of perpetual war and instability The book focuses on how Doms are able to sustain ethnic difference through kinship even when public performances of difference are no longer emphasized a kind of alterity that is neither visible by obvious markers like race or religious difference nor detected by the antennas of the state Drawing on long term ethnographic fieldwork in Jerusalem Ramallah and Amman Roy makes a case for such alterity for Romani people and other groups in the region Analysing intimate ethnographic scenes through anthropological theories of kinship psychoanalysis social theory from the Global South and more the book reveals how alterity in the Middle East does not adhere to rigid identitarian categories Ultimately Relative Strangers demonstrates the inadequacy of transposing models of pluralism centred on European and American experiences of minoritization onto other contexts Enabling Urban Alternatives Jens Kaae Fisker,Letizia Chiappini,Lee Pugalís,Antonella
