Religion Is Dying Soaring Secularism In America And The West:

Religion Is Dying James Haught, 2014-11-29 Perhaps 50 million adult Americans now say their religion is none or don't know. This number has climbed dramatically since the 1990s. About 20 million U.S. Catholics have left that church, so one tenth of American adults now are ex-Catholics. Two thirds of American Christians in their 20s drop out of church before age 30. One report estimates that once prestigious mainline Protestant faiths with seminary educated clergy have disintegrated so severely since 1960 that one analyst refers to Flatline Protestantism. An estimated 4,000 American churches close each year. From every direction, evidence is snowballing that America, known for devout religion, is following the secular path of Western Europe, Canada, Australia, Japan, and other modern democracies where churchgoing has retreated to a fringe. The trend can be seen in cultural changes such as the rapid social acceptance of gays. The Bible commands that homosexuals shall surely be put to death, and fundamentalist churches have ranted against them for centuries, yet most Americans now feel that they deserve human rights and equality. Religion has lost its power to dictate America's morality. This book chronicles the slow, relentless demise of supernatural religion in America and the West.

The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John Lyden, 2009 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film brings together a lively and experienced team of contributors to introduce students to the key topics in religion and film and to investigate the ways in which the exciting subject of religion and film is developing for more experienced scholars. Divided into four parts, the Companion analyzes the history of the interaction of religion and film through periods of censorship as well as appreciation of the medium. Studies of religion in film examine how the world's major religions as well as Postcolonial Japanese and New Religions are depicted by and within films. Uses diverse methodologies to explore religion and film, such as psychoanalytical, theological, and feminist approaches. Audience reception analyzes religious themes in film, including Redemption, the Demonic Jesus, or Christ Figures, Heroes, and Superheroes. Considers films as diverse as The Passion of the Christ, The Matrix, Star Wars, and Groundhog Day. This definitive book provides an accessible resource to this emerging field and is an indispensable guide to religion and film for students of Religion, Film Studies, and beyond.

New Age Religion and Western Culture Wouter J. Hanegraaff, 2018-09-24 Recent years have seen a spectacular rise of the New Age movement and an ever-increasing interest in its beliefs and manifestations. This fascinating work presents the first ever comprehensive analysis of New Age Religion and its historical backgrounds, thus providing the reader with a means of orientation in the bewildering variety of the movement. Making extensive use of primary sources, the author thematically analyses New Age beliefs from the perspective of the study of religions. While looking at the historical backgrounds of the movement, he convincingly argues that its foundations were laid by so-called Western esoteric traditions during the Renaissance. Hanegraaff finally shows how the modern New Age movement emerged from the increasing secularization of those esoteric traditions during the 19th century. This ground-breaking publication is compulsive reading for all those involved or interested in the New Age movement.

Religion, Gender and Race in Western European Arts and Culture Nella van den Brandt, 2024-02-26 This book examines narratives of individual religious transformation in Western European literature and culture Religious individuals themes experiences and communities are widely represented in diverse literature and culture including literary texts and visual arts and media Taking the subject of religious transformation as an angle from which to study constructions of religion gender and race this book reveals through various case studies what authors documentary makers film makers and playwrights consider to be important possible shifts between the old and the new continuities and discontinuities and the formation of the self The chapters demonstrate how individual religious transformations are understood to be shaped by various intersections of difference and point at the need to consider gender as always related to and co constructing religion and race This transdisciplinary and intimate study provides a fresh lens through which to examine pressing questions regarding the place and future of religion gender and race in contemporary Western Europe The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2006 Looking at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century this is a comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion It describes how people from a variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies

Secular Review, 1886 The Shield of faith, 1883 On Christendom's Far Shore James Larry Hood, 2013-12-18 On Christendom's Far Shore describes and explains American society by first illuminating its foundational stones the traditional western Judeo Christian faith in God and the West's once common understanding of the natural order and the nature and destiny of man It explores the biblical concepts of faith paradox tragedy and grace time gender relations love work play individual and communal responsibilities freedom and the Kingdom of Heaven The book illustrates how these ideas and values underlie more specifically American values and American social and governmental patterns and structures such as the pursuit of knowledge and wisdom the creation of families and larger social groups and communities the mentoring of future generations and people's understanding of self governance and how to relate to other nations On Christendom's Far Shore depicts the present as a time of twilight with the United States caught up in a cataclysmic clash between a traditional understanding of man and of a God centered universe and a post modern existential man centered multicultural worldview that rejects the old values and structures and determinedly seeks a vast restructuring of the nation's social and political order and character

Islam and the West Michael J. Thompson, 2003-08-18 Since the terrorist attacks of September 11th the topic of Islam's political cultural religious and spiritual tendencies and beliefs has been thrust into the spotlight However most discussions concerning Islam's relation to the West tend to simplify and distort the intricate nature of the problem The essays in Islam and the West approach the interactions of Islam the West and modernity through overlapping social historical economic cultural and philosophical layers Viewed through this complex prism of analysis the full dimensions of the relationship become clear The result is a deeper understanding of the nature of modernity and how other societies can relate to each other in an increasingly complex globalizing world The Western Christian Advocate ,1897 What's So Great About Christianity Dinesh D'Souza,2008-11-04 Is Christianity true Can educated thinking people really believe the Bible Or do the athiests have it right Has Christianity been disproved by science and discredited as a guide to morality Best selling author Dinesh D Souza What s So Great About America approaches Christianity with a skeptical eye but treats the skeptics with equal skepticism The result is a book that will challenge the assumptions of doubters and affirm that there really is indeed something great about Christianity North-western Christian Advocate ,1901 Secular World and Social Economist George Jacob Holyoake,1855 The History of the Fleet Street House 20 p at the end of v 18 The Cinema of John Boorman Brian Hoyle,2012-09-14 John Boorman has written and directed more than 25 television and feature films including such classics as Deliverance Point Blank Hope and Glory and Excalibur He has been nominated for five Academy Awards including twice for best Director Deliverance and Hope and Glory In the first full length critical study of the director in more than two decades author Brian Hoyle presents a comprehensive examination of Boorman s career to date The Cinema of John Boorman offers a film by film appraisal of the director s career including his feature films and little known works for television Drawing on unpublished archive material Hoyle provides a close reading of each of Boorman s films Organized chronologically each chapter examines two or three films and links them thematically This study also describes Boorman s interest in myths and quest narratives as well as his relationship with writers and literature Making the case that Boorman is both an auteur and a visionary The Cinema of John Boorman will be of interest not only to fans of the director s work but to film scholars in general The Oxford Dictionary of Islam John L. Esposito,2004-10-21 The dictionary focuses primarily on the 19th and 20th centuries stressing topics of most interest to Westerners What emerges is a highly informative look at the religious political and social spheres of the modern Islamic world Naturally readers will find many entries on topics of intense current interest such as terrorism and the Taliban Osama bin Laden and al Qaida the PLO and HAMAS But the coverage goes well beyond recent headlines There are biographical profiles ranging from Naguib Mahfouz the Nobel Prize winner from Egypt to Malcolm X including political leaders influential thinkers poets scientists and writers Other entries cover major political movements militant groups and religious sects as well as terms from Islamic law culture and religion key historical events and important landmarks such as Mecca and Medina A series of entries looks at Islam in individual nations such as Afghanistan the West Bank and Gaza Bosnia Herzegovina and the United States and the God is Back John Micklethwait,Adrian Wooldridge,2009 On the street and in the corridors of power religion is surging worldwide From Russia to Turkey to India nations that swore off faith in the last century or even tried to stamp it out are now run by avowedly religious leaders This book examines this new world from exorcisms in S o Paulo to religious skirmishing in Nigeria to televangelism in California and house churches in China Since the Enlightenment intellectuals have assumed that modernization would kill religion and that religious America is an oddity As these authors argue religion and modernity can thrive together and America is becoming the norm The failure of communism and the rise of globalism helped spark the global revival but above all 21st century religion is being fueled by a very American emphasis on competition and a customer driven approach to salvation and its destabilizing effects can already be seen far from Iraq or the World Trade Center From publisher description
