Education for Interreligious Dialogue Patrick Chinedu Mbarah, 2020-09-29 This publication representing substantively the doctoral dissertation of Rev Fr Patrick Chinedu Mbarah examines the implication of education for interreligious dialogue He believes that education has a paramount role to play in advancing interreligious dialogue Focusing on Archdiocese of Owerri Nigeria he evaluates the situation at hand in the light of the relationship existing among the different religions Islam Christianity African Traditional Religion and some of the New Religious Movements He insists that education will help in the promotion and progress of dialogue among the different religion frontiers The book argues that education for interreligious dialogue is not optional instead it is a necessity and an obligation in the Nigerian context The book highlights the importance of catholic education and how the various channels existing in the archdiocese of Owerri could be used as veritable means of formation of the people to understand the teaching of the Church on interreligious relations with people of other faith traditions Furthermore the book presents a concrete proposal of an Interreligious Dialogue Directory for the application of principles and norms for the education of people for a mutual coexistence with followers of other religious traditions in Owerri Archdiocese Nigeria It is meant for the education of people at different levels pastoral agents catechists priests religious and lay faithful It also addresses schools especially Secondary and Tertiary institutions

Christian - Muslim Relations in Sudan Gabriel Gai Riam, 2022-05-23 This book examines relationship between Sudanese Churches either as denominations or as ecumenical bodies and the successive central government in Khartoum Sudan In this context and for the propose of this book church state relations therefore focus on constitutional political and social aspect of Christian Muslims relations The author used the term theologically with reference to the challenges that face Sudanese religious communities to find theological resources in their respective traditions The book advances four main arguments firstly both Christianity and Islam in Sudan have allowed themselves to become polarized by political ethnic and cultural factors secondly the policy of successive governments and military regimes since independence has been to deploy Arabisation and Islamization as means of national unity thirdly both Christianity and Islam have ethical and theological resources that can contribute to national reconciliation and lastly that the African traditionalist have theological resources that can contribute to consolidate peace building mechanisms among the Sudanese communities The objective of the book is to contribute to an understanding of the complexity of the factors that have strained religious communities to enable them draw lessons that can contribute to the challenge of reconciliation and peace building within Sudan as a nation The book is recommended as essential reading for everyone seeking to understand these complexities of the historical and theological resources of the Sudanese religious communities involved around the subject

Papal Teaching in the Age of Infallibility, 1870 to the Present Kevin T. Keating, 2018-06-29 Kevin Keating examines the major writings of the Roman Pontiffs from Pius IX in the last half of the nineteenth century to the most recent writings of Francis He explores the shift in papal focus from internal church matters and attacks on modern thought to concern for matters affecting all of humanity not just spiritually but socially politically and economically as well Looming over all of these teachings is the specter of the doctrine of infallibility First defined in 1870 to cover only papal infallibility it would be expanded in the 1960s to include the exercise of infallibility by the worldwide college of bishops Keating discusses the most significant themes dealt with by popes during this period the Bible religious freedom church state relations social doctrine human sexuality ecumenism and interreligious dialogue He describes how papal teaching has changed developed and even been contradicted by later popes although they have failed to expressly acknowledge departures from prior teaching He details how the doctrine of infallibility far from serving to bolster the credibility of papal teaching often has served to undermine it
