Reminiscences of Mrs. C.T. Studd Charles Thomas Studd, Priscilla Studd, R. Hindle, 1930* Reminiscences of Mrs. C.T. Studd. By Her Husband. [With Plates, Including Portraits.] Charles Thomas STUDD, Priscilla Livingstone STUDD, 1930 Christ as Centre and Circumference John Warwick Montgomery, 2012-07-23 Endorsements Dr Montgomery's latest book is one that every serious reader interested in clear Christian thinking should have on a table near her most comfortable reading chair. It is filled with a wide variety of bite-sized essays that are absolutely delightful, knowledgeable, fun, witty, and unexpected. If you have never read the work of J. W. Montgomery before, you are in for a treat. This is a book that brings together his best writing from the past with his latest essays. It's a Christian feast of ideas that celebrates our Lord and His unfailing Word. Craig J. Hazen, Ph.D., Director, M.A. Program in Christian Apologetics, Biola University. What makes J. W. Montgomery tick? What has driven him over a massively productive career to such wide-ranging interests as computers and Chemnitz legal theory and apologetics, human rights and Christology, Dawkins and Duchamp? The answer is clear: the gospel of Jesus Christ and its defense, articulation, and application to the real world in which the Word became flesh, died, and rose again as the Savior. Many of our best confessional-era theologians, both Lutheran and Reformed, were Renaissance men, but that's rarely the case today. Dr. Montgomery is a glaring exception, and this book is a wonderful display of that full scope of his remarkable insights. While being an ardent defender of the Lutheran confession, he is far from parochial. Even in places where one might disagree, the clarity, logic, and relentless rigor of his arguments will kindle fires in hearths that we didn't even know we had, and make us better advocates for the gospel. Dr. Michael Horton, J. Gresham Machen Professor of Systematic Theology and Apologetics, Westminster Seminary, California. About the Contributor: John Warwick Montgomery is Professor Emeritus of Law and Humanities, University of Bedfordshire, England; Distinguished Research Professor of Philosophy and Christian Thought, Patrick Henry College, Virginia, U.S.A., and Director, International Academy of Apologetics, Evangelism, and Human Rights, Strasbourg, France. He holds ten earned degrees, besides a Doctorate in Philosophy from the University of Chicago, the Doctorate d'Université from Strasbourg, France, and the LL.M. and LL.D. from the University of Cardiff, Wales, UK. A frequent contributor to Christianity Today, Dr. Montgomery has been honored by inclusion in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in France, and The Dictionary of International Biography. He is the author of some thirty books in the areas of theology, philosophy, and church history. He pleads cases before the European Court of Human Rights and has received the Patriarch's Medal of the Romanian Orthodox Church for his efforts in behalf of religious liberty. He is an ordained Lutheran pastor. Websites The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library, 1985 The Keswick Movement Charles Edwin Jones, 2007. This volume introduces researchers to the leaders, ideas, and institutions of the Keswick Movement, a strand of holiness teaching that was embraced by many evangelicals who came from the more Calvinistic wing of Protestantism, especially Anglicans, Baptists, Congregationalists, and Presbyterians. The

Keswick Movement is the most difficult of the three main holiness traditions to delineate Unlike the Wesleyan Holiness and Holiness Pentecostal traditions the Keswick Movement has not gone through a definitive period of careful theological refining and institutional boundary setting      Recollections & Reminiscences Martin Bladen Hawke Baron Hawke,1924

Winter,2006-05-19 In a college room at Cambridge University in 1920 twenty four young men who had heard Gods call to the mission field knew they wanted to keep in touch after they had gone their separate God appointed ways They had formed a close bond during the previous years at Cambridge as they prayed together studied their Bibles together and shared their faith in Jesus Christ with fellow students calling themselves the Cambridge University Missionary Band C U M B In the next seventy years these men would be involved in worldwide movements of the Holy Spirit This book contains the letters of one member of the Band Norman Percy Grubb Although not at the inaugural meeting because he was already in the Belgian Congo with C T Studd Norman was one in heart with his brothers They shared intimately with each othertheir successes sorrows joys and failures In these letters spanning the years 1922 thru 1989 you will find men of faith men with a heart and passion to share their Saviour ordinary men extraordinary men men involved in many great and worldwide movements of the Spirit and simple men with a lifelong love for their Lord their families and each other You will find yourself caught up in history and inspired as you share in the lives of these called men of God      Tatler & Bystander ,1919      The Story of Faith Missions Klaus Fiedler,2011-07-20 Born of nineteenth century Evangelical Awakening and closely linked to Hudson Taylor and the China Inland Mission he founded in 1865 faith missions were unique in two key areas they were interdenominational and they held firmly to the faith principle of financial support The faith mission movement has lost none of its vitality and relevance as it continues to play an important evangelistic role in Africa and worldwide The result of more than a decade of research in Africa Europe and the United States and extensively supported by maps and charts this book is the most comprehensive study available on the faith mission movement in Africa Setting faith missions in the context of the many revival and missionary movements which have shaped Protestant church history the author describes their spiritual and practical evolution over 125 years and outlines the challenges they face today      Christian Thought ,1916

Interdenominational Faith Missions in Africa Klaus Fiedler,2018-03-13 It was not the European and American churches which evangelised Africa but the mission societies The missions from the Great Awakening such as the London Missionary Society and Church Missionary Society or the Holy Ghost Fathers and the White Fathers which started the process of Sub Saharan Africa becoming a Christian continent are well known and documented Less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of Africa North Africa the Sudan Belt and the Congo Basin Missions such as the Africa Inland Mission or Sudan Interior Mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ECWA in Nigeria and Africa Inland Church in Kenya It is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched Africa      With C. W G s death Wisden s tribute to Grace gives a clear picture of the way that Grace and the game in general have been viewed over the past 150 years and is a delight for any cricket lover The Institute Tie ,1916 Conflicted Power in Malawian Christianity Fiedler, Klaus,2015-12-01 The volume constitutes Klaus Fiedler s crowning contribution to scholarship Essays in the first half of the book focus on Malawian Christianity and how contrasting Powers Gospel and Secular engage each other creating social political and cultural conflict in the process In the second half Fiedler examines general missiological themes These essays provide a broader missiological background offering a theoretical framework necessary for appreciating the essays in the first half He concludes with a chapter that reviews selected seminal books on themes under study Throughout the volume Fiedler applies the restorationist revival theory he constructed in The Story of Faith Missions an earlier 1994 work putting emphasis on non classical missions and churches not systematically covered in earlier scholarship This volume the first of its kind on Malawian Christianity will long remain an indispensable text for those interested in Missiology and Malawian Christianity
