Russell E. Mumford, 1995-08-22 Why do I like soap operas Laura Stempel Mumford asks and her answer emerges in a feminist analysis of soap opera that participates in current debates about popular culture television and ideology She argues that the conventional daytime soap has an implicit and at times explicit political agenda that cooperates in the teaching of male dominance and the related oppressions of racism classism and heterosexism so that they seem inevitable All My Children General Hospital Another World One Life to Live Days of Our Lives The Young and the Restless a close reading of their texts will also answer some larger questions about television and its place in the broad landscape of popular culture

Global Media and Communication Policy P. Iosifidis, 2011-08-26 Petros Iosifidis addresses an increasingly prominent subject area in the field of media and communications and one that has attracted increased attention in areas such as sociology economics political science and law global media policy and regulation Specifically he considers the wider social political economic and technological changes arising from the globalization of the communications industries and assesses their impact on matters of regulation and policy By focusing on the convergence of the communication and media industries he makes reference to the paradigmatic shift from a system based on the traditions of public service in broadcast and telecommunications delivery to one that is demarcated by commercialization privatization and competition In doing so Iosifidis tackles a key question in the field to what extent do new media developments require changes in regulatory philosophy and objectives It considers the various possible meanings of the public interest concept in exploring the different regulatory modes and the interplay between the local and the global in policy making Social TV Mike Proulx, Stacey

Shepatin, 2012-01-26 The Internet didn't kill TV It has become its best friend Americans are watching more television than ever before and we're engaging online at the same time we're tuning in Social media has created a new and powerful backchannel fueling the renaissance of live broadcasts Mobile and tablet devices allow us to watch and experience television whenever and wherever we want And connected TVs blend web and television content into a unified big screen experience bringing us back into our living rooms Social TV examines the changing and complex television landscape and helps brands navigate its many emerging and exciting marketing and advertising opportunities Social TV topics include Leveraging the second screen to drive synched and deeper brand engagement Using social ratings analytics tools to find and target lean forward audiences Aligning brand messaging to content as it travels time shifted across devices Determining the best strategy to approach marketing via connected TVs Employing addressable TV advertising to maximize content relevancy Testing and learning from the most cutting edge emerging TV innovations The rise of one technology doesn't always mean the end of another Discover how this convergence has created new marketing opportunities for your brand Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by Universal Television Wikipedia contributors, Popular Mechanics, 1994-12 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Broadcasting for Wales Elain Price, 2022-10-15 This study provides an insight into the history of one of Wales most important cultural organisation It provides a detailed insight into the key decisions and debates from within S4C It contains interviews with key individuals who were part of the debates and discussions providing significant context to those debates From Networks to Netflix Derek Johnson, 2022-07-26 Now in a second edition this textbook surveys the channels platforms and programming through which television distribution operates with a diverse selection of contributors providing thorough explorations of global media industries in flux Even as legacy media industries experience significant disruption in the face of streaming and online delivery the power of the television channel persists Far from disappearing television channels have multiplied and adapted to meet the needs of old and new industry players alike Television viewers now navigate complex choices among broadcast cable and streaming services across a host of different devices From Networks to Netflix guides students instructors and scholars through that complex and transformed channel landscape to reveal how these industry changes unfold and why they matter This second edition features new players like Disney HBO Max Crunchyroll Hotstar and more increasing attention to TV services across the world An ideal resource for students and scholars of media criticism media theory and media industries this book continues to offer a concrete tangible way to grasp the foundations of television and television studies even as they continue to be rewritten Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, 1966 Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1965 Electronic Media Criticism Peter B. Orlik, 2001 Given the prominence of the electronic media in the 21st century it is crucial that both media professionals and consumers know how to decipher and evaluate media content the assumptions on which that content is based and the constraints to which it is subject Electronic Media Criticism offers a variety of critical approaches to audio and video discourse Rather than restricting itself to one perspective the book applies key aesthetic sociological philosophical psychological structural and economic principles to arrive at a comprehensive evaluation of both programming and advertising content Maintaining the approach of the original volume this second edition includes updated chapters to reflect the current media world including sample reviews and illustrations material pertaining to new media because the book is process oriented rather than medium oriented Internet referents are interspersed in discussion of the various critical perspectives two additional scripts for critical analysis an episode of The Simpsons and an installment of the dark Canadian comedy The Newsroom and new exercises for further practice in applying critical procedures Orlik interweaves the insights of industry and academic authorities recognizing that both orientations are essential in the development of a valid and viable critical outlook Written for media students and practitioners all readers of this volume will gain feasible and flexible tools for focused and rational analysis of electronic media products as well as improved understanding of the role and essential ingredients of criticism itself Magazine Jeff Jarvis, 2023-10-05 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things For a century magazines were the authors of culture and taste of intelligence and policy until they were overthrown by the voices of the public themselves online Here is a tribute to all that magazines were from their origins in London and on Ben Franklin's press through their boom enabled by new technologies as creators of a new media aesthetic and a new mass culture into their opulent days in advertising supported conglomerates and finally to their fall at the hands of the internet This tale is told through the experience of a magazine founder the creator of Entertainment Weekly at Time Inc who was also TV critic at TV Guide and People and finally an executive at Cond Nast trying to shepherd its magazines into the digital age Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic Congressional Record United States.
