

Third Grade Narrative Writing Rubric

	3	2	1	0
Introduction 3.W.3a	I clearly introduce a situation (problem/ event/ adventure), a narrator, setting, and characters.	I begin to introduce a situation (problem/ event/ adventure), narrator, characters, and setting, but it isn't fully clear who, everyone is, what is happening, or where we are.	I write an introduction but it doesn't introduce a situation, narrator, characters, and setting.	I do not write an introduction.
Sequence and Conclusion 3.W.3 and 3.W.3c	My narrative is told in order and has a clear beginning, middle, and end. I correctly used paragraphs to separate my beginning, middle, and end.	My narrative events are mostly told in order but it isn't always easy to tell what is the beginning, middle, and end. I used paragraphs, but they weren't all used to correctly separate my beginning, middle, and end.	My narrative events are mostly in order and it is very unclear where the beginning, middle, and end are. I do not use paragraphs.	I do not write a narrative.
Details 3.W.3b	I use dialogue, and descriptions of actions, feelings, and thoughts to develop experiences, events, or responses to situations.	I use a lot of descriptions of actions, but could use more dialogue, feelings, and thoughts to develop my narrative.	I use descriptions of actions but do not use dialogue, feelings, or thoughts.	I did not write a narrative.

A Complete Guide to Rubrics Audrey M. Quinlan, 2012 This book takes a developmental perspective at the use of scoring rubrics to assess student work Citing developmental characteristics of each age the author presents examples and adaptations of assessment rubrics on a variety of subjects for teachers from kindergarten through adult college After a presentation of foundation information on rubrics separate chapters are devoted to each grade level from primary through adult Written so that each chapter can be addressed independently the book provides additional chapters devoted to assessing technological topics and using rubrics with students with special needs The final chapters provide practical information to help teachers to create their own rubrics and to covert rubric scores to letter grades An updated annotated listing of recommended rubric websites is included

Imagining Transmedia Ed Finn, Bob Beard, Joey Eschrich, Ruth Wylie, 2024-04-23 How the blurring of media forms transmedia became the default for how we experience narratives and how that cultural transformation has redefined the worlds of education entertainment and our increasingly polarized public discourse Over the past decade the power of narrative has been unleashed with awesome and terrifying consequences and it has been consumed in its blurred media forms by millions of people as news entertainment and education Imagining Transmedia edited by Ed Finn Bob Beard Joey Eschrich and Ruth Wylie explores the surprising ways that narratives working across media forms became the default grammar for both media consumption and personal expression and how multiplatform storytelling creates new media literacies and modes of civil discourse Understanding this shift reveals transmedia as an essential building block of media literacy today Transmedia is how we create interpret and participate in our increasingly mediated society It extends beyond popular culture into professional and public spheres while at the same time it fuels the misinformation and polarization that have contributed to America s fraying civic discourse Reaching beyond traditional academic analyses this probing collection of essays and conversations features transmedia practitioners sharing their experiences and inviting readers to imagine the types of multimodal stories and experiences they might create Prioritizing conversation over a single unified theory each section of this volume pairs thematically linked essays from international contributors with a dialogue between authors to create an accessible practical synthesis of ideas

Teaching Literacy in Urban Schools Barbara Purdum-Cassidy, Lakia M. Scott, 2018-03-02 Today s public schools represent greater student diversity than ever before in the history of the United States yet pedagogical approaches as mandated by state education agencies and school districts superimpose mainstream curricula and instructional practices which ultimately disadvantage the academic outcomes of the majority minority African American and Hispanic Latino students Unfortunately national report findings also heighten the educational crisis that exists for Black and Brown children with regard to reading and writing achievement As a result there is need to deeply explore the relationship between Black and Brown student literacy achievement and educational policy teacher education program curriculum and assessment This book seeks to provide some practical insights guided by conceptual and contextual knowledge by understanding how to teach urban African American and Hispanic Latino students by discussing culturally appropriate instructional strategies that have demonstrated success among African American and Hispanic Latino students. This book will showcase successful models for teaching literacy to urban students through a discussion of topics that include 1 increasing literacy achievement and motivation 2 multicultural literacy practices and 3 early and elementary literacy instruction The Testing Trap George Hillocks, 2002-04-12 Do statewide assessments really do what they are supposed to do Through interviews with over three hundred teachers and administrators Hillocks examines whether state writing tests in Illinois Kentucky Oregon New York and Texas actually improve students ability to express their thinking in writing Ultimately Hillocks argues that the majority of existing tests actually have a harmful effect on the way students are taught to write In addition to providing analyses of assessments that do not encourage good writing The Testing Trap contrasts them to those that do Concluding with practical procedures for examining and evaluating writing assessments this book is a provocative and essential read for administrators teachers policymakers parents and all who care about the education of our children Resources in Education ,2001-10
