Tea for Veterans Reverend Mike Wanner, 2014-11-09 There is great potential here to promote the wellness of 1 Veterans 2 Churches 3 Service Organizations The livelihood of all three can be enhanced by taking the effort to embrace Veterans and offer to help them The secret to success may just be a simple informal meeting where a Service Organization representative and a church representative meet a veteran in an arranged meeting where the priority is simply to chat a bit with no expectations by any of the participants I remember well when I came back from Vietnam and went to church with my family Of course I had been away for four years and did not know anybody at the particular service I attended Of course I expected the same God would be there I was appalled when there was little good news and a lot of financial reports that I referred to as the Gospel according to the checkbook I have been to that church seldom since

That Knock at the Door Holly S. Fenelon, 2012-06-05 A blue star for each family member serving in Americas military a gold star if that life was lost in defense of the nations freedom IN WORLD WAR I the American tradition of the service flag began Families displayed a simple fabric banner with a blue star for each family member serving in the U S Armed Forces If a family member died in the nations service a gold star covered that individuals blue star on the family service flag Not a symbol of mourning the gold star represented the familys pride and the honor and glory accorded to that individual for making the supreme sacrifice in defense of the Americas freedom Soon the term gold star mother came to be used to identify and honor women who had lost a son or daughter in wartime military service Following the war as the nation focused its attention on those veterans who had returned whole in mind and body gold star mothers served as a constant reminder of the true cost of war In 1928 a group of these women formed American Gold Star Mothers Inc an organization created to honor those who had died by being of service to veterans and their families in need supporting gold star families and caring for veterans who had returned with physical emotional and psychological wounds From that humble beginning American Gold Star Mothers Inc has become an icon of national service opening its membership time and again to gold star mothers of later wars and conflicts including Iraq and Afghanistan Their amazing legacy of service is an important yet largely unknown chapter in American history This book presents the story of gold star mothers in America and the first comprehensive history of American Gold Star Mothers Inc drawn from nearly a century of archival materials The fascinating story of the strong women who honored their fallen sons and daughters by dedicating themselves to the service of veterans and peace is both compelling and inspiring      Congressional Record United States.
