Teaching Language Arts To English Language Learners Angela Hansen:

Teaching Language Arts to English Language Learners Anete Vásquez, Angela L. Hansen, Philip C. Smith, 2013-03-12

This thoroughly revised and updated edition of Teaching Language Arts to English Language Learners provides readers with the comprehensive understanding of both the challenges that face ELLs and ways in which educators might address them in the language arts classroom. The authors offer proven techniques that teachers can readily use to teach reading, writing, grammar, and vocabulary, as well as speaking, listening, and viewing skills. A complete section is also devoted to ways teachers can integrate all five strands of the language arts curriculum into a comprehensive unit of study with meaningful accommodations for ELLs. An annotated list of web and print resources completes the volume, making this a valuable reference for language arts teachers to meet the challenges of including all learners in effective instruction. New features to this edition include an updated and streamlined Part 1 which provides an essential overview of ELL theory in a language arts specific context. Additional practical examples of language arts exercises, all of which are closely aligned with the Common Core State Standards. New pedagogical elements in Part 3 include tips on harnessing new technologies, discussion questions, and reflection points. Updates to the web and print resources in Part 4.

Dance Dance Education Choreography and related art forms Curriculum studies and Sociology of Education Integrated Language Arts in the Elementary School Susan Jane Tchudi, 1994 Integrated Language Arts in the Elementary School reflects many of the most important recent developments in language arts teaching both in the United States and internationally In keeping with current theory and research in children s language learning the text emphasizes the view that the language areas should not be isolated into separate areas of study but should be integrated with an emphasis on whole meaningful experiences that absorb and engage students CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1991 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1993 The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1991 volume lists and annotates 1 925 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions were published during the 1991 calendar year A group of 171 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for the entries appearing in this volume The CCCC Bibliography includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Considerably more comprehensive than other bibliographies in composition studies the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective Annotations accompany all entries in this volume They describe a publication s contents and are intended to help users determine its usefulness Annotations are brief and insofar as the English language allows are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about while leaving readers free to judge for themselves the work s merits Most annotations serve one of three functions they present the document s thesis main argument or major research finding they describe the work s major organizational divisions or they indicate the purpose or scope of the work The subject index lists most of the topics discussed in the works cited in this volume Consulting the Subject Index will help users locate sections and subsections containing large numbers of entries addressing the same topic Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the end of each subsection Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master s theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 220 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC When Writers Read Jane
