

THE BOY IN THE STRIPED PYJAMAS

CHAPTER SIX (FULL LESSON)

The image shows three overlapping worksheet cards with a striped background. The top-left card is titled 'Reading focus: The portrayal of the Nazis' and contains text about the historical context and the novel's perspective. The top-right card is titled 'Discussion' and lists skills for a group discussion, including listening, responding, and contributing. The bottom card is partially obscured and contains text about a character's background.

Reading focus: The portrayal of the Nazis

When we look back at the history of the Holocaust, it is commonly accepted that the Nazis were just evil people. By labelling them like this it makes them seem monstrous and inhuman – and distances them from the rest of us.

It is easier to imagine the Nazis as “normal people” with emotions, fears and dreams because if “normal people” can commit something as awful as the Holocaust, then does that mean we all have the capacity for evil inside us? Does this mean that events like the Holocaust will continue to happen?

In this chapter, we see a different side to Father – a kind and good side. Think about why John Boyne has included this. What effect does it have on the reader?

Discussion

These are the skills that you need to focus on in this activity:

Grade	Description
Outstanding	You are very convincing in role and lead the discussion forward. You listen carefully and respond to other's points. You portray your character using verbal and non-verbal characteristics. You help to move the discussion forward.
Very Good	You respond appropriately to other people's points. You are convincing in your role portrayal and show what the character is like. You interact with the other characters. You stay in role throughout the whole discussion. You make 2 or 3 contributions but do not necessarily give reasons for your opinion.
Good
Adequate
