CLIL in Action María Luisa Pérez Cañado, David Marsh, Juan Ráez Padilla, 2015-10-05 This volume explores the current position of CLIL on the three main fronts where it is attracting particular attention in specialized literature namely implementation research and teacher training To this end it presents evidence from national and international research projects governmentally financed pedagogical initiatives grassroots experiences and investigations and inter institutional training programs which offer insights into how CLIL is working in action on the afore mentioned three levels The opening section of the book CLIL in action Practical considerations provides a window into how CLIL implementation is unravelling at the grassroots level vis vis key aspects for CLIL development such as the design of materials the use of ICT and the importance of extramural exposure The second part The effects of CLIL on language learning Research based evidence explores some key areas for future research showcasing how engaging in research as a device that drives reflection is the best possible way to continue moving the CLIL agenda forward Finally in the third part Preparing teachers for CLIL Practical proposals the interface of research and pedagogy is discussed as the former informs the latter in a clear instantiation of what Coyle 2011 terms evidence based practice in setting necessary teacher training actions in place As such the volume addresses three burning issues in the CLIL scenario through practical and research based proposals of tried and true CLIL development If all three strands implementation research and training dovetail and progress in harmony a solid template will be built for the future and the CLIL agenda will be pushed forward By pooling together the insights of a set of researchers teacher trainers policy makers and grassroots practitioners this volume will contribute to this much needed endeavour

Intercultural Dialogue on English Language Teaching Christine Manara, 2014-03-17 This book examines how educators conceptualize their profession and re construct their professional selves Drawing on a narrative based study it reports research that follows closely five multilingual English language teacher educators teaching in a teacher education program at a large private university It explores their learning and teaching experiences and how they attach meaning to these experiences the re construction of their professional identity their commitment to their profession and the various factors that mediate these experiences and understandings by analyzing their narrative accounts In this exploration there is a particular focus on the nature of language identity and culture in intercultural teacher education settings Overall the book demonstrates the complex nuanced and dynamic nature of professional learning and intercultural identity construction involving multiple sometimes competing discourses of professionalism in ELT The teacher educators professional learning narratives provide an insight into their struggle for voice Britzman 2003 in their immediate teaching and learning context as well as internationally Their struggle for a voice highlights the frictions negotiations and dialogues with the dominant western discourses of ELT professionalism that have often been imposed on them in their profession In addition their teaching and learning accounts emphasize the importance of revisiting re evaluating and reimagining the teaching paradigm of ELT in this teaching setting in engaging with today s globalized world These accounts suggest a call for pedagogical and curriculum reform in ELT that takes into account learners linguistic and cultural identity and that will enable them to use English as a language that mediates their identity work as national international and intercultural selves This book is about English language educators professional learning and will be of interest to teacher candidates teachers and teacher educators who wish to extend their knowledge and understanding of the dynamicity and complexity of teachers learning through narratives of teaching

Errors in English Pronunciation among Arabic Speakers Mohamed Fathy Khalifa, 2020-01-17 This book is a contrastive analysis of Arabs errors in English pronunciation regarding segmentals consonants consonant clusters and vowels and suprasegmentals main word stress It also explains the main interlingual reasons behind these errors and presents some teaching suggestions for surmounting them The findings show that the subjects substitute their own Arabic sounds for unfamiliar English ones producing incorrect English sounds In addition they apply Arabic main word stress rules instead of English ones producing incorrect English stress patterns The book also shows that English sounds and stress patterns that are both different and more marked than corresponding Arabic ones caused learning difficulties for the subjects

Language, Development Aid and Human Rights in Education Zehlia Babaci-Wilhite, 2016-02-22 The debate about languages of instruction in Africa and Asia involves an analysis of both the historical thrust of national government and also development aid policies Using case studies from Tanzania Nigeria South Africa Rwanda India Bangladesh and Malaysia Zehlia Babaci Wilhite argues that the colonial legacy is perpetuated when global languages are promoted in education The use of local languages in instruction not only offers an effective means to contextualize the curriculum and improve student comprehension but also to achieve quality education and rights in education
