Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower, 2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matemba, Bruce A. Collet, 2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education RE across the Global South Including 23 chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections The first three sections deal with provision response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE The next four sections explore young people and RE perspectives on teachers RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North but the concept is also examined in historical geographical political social and cultural terms including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions Exploring RE from local cross national as well as regional and sub regional perspectives the handbook examines RE from its diverse past present realities and envisioned future revealing not only tensions contestations injustices and inequalities of power but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems

Politics, Christianity and Society in Malawi Ross, Kenneth R., Mulwafu, Wapulumuka O., 2020-02-27 With the death of John McCracken in 2017 Malawi lost a pre eminent historian This book celebrates McCracken s contribution to the study of Malawi s history and seeks to build on his legacy Part of his genius was that he identified themes that hold the key to understanding the history of Malawi in its broader perspective The authors contributing to this volume address these themes assessing the progress of historiography and setting an agenda for the further advance of historical studies The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and all who are interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Malawi's past and present Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics-Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education Carmen Batanero,Gail Burrill,Chris Reading,2011-07-31 Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education results from the Joint ICMI IASE Study Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education Oriented to analyse the teaching of statistics in school and to recommend improvements in the training of mathematics teachers to encourage success in preparing statistically literate students the volume provides a picture of the current situation in both the teaching of school statistics and the pre service education of mathematics teachers A primary goal of Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education is to describe the essential elements of statistics teacher's professional knowledge and their learning experiences Moreover a research agenda that invites new research while building from current knowledge is developed Recommendations about strategies and materials available to train prospective teachers in university and in service teachers who have not been adequately prepared are also accessible to the reader

Teaching Religious and Worldviews Education Creatively Sally Elton-Chalcraft,2024-07-30 Teaching Religious and Worldviews Education Creatively offers a fresh perspective on the Religious Education RE curriculum This second edition is crammed full of practical lesson ideas underpinned by cutting edge research authored by specialists in the field It helps teachers understand what constitutes an effective and creative Religion and Worldviews Education RWE curriculum and challenges teachers to view RWE as a transformatory subject that offers learners the tools to be discerning to work out their own beliefs and to answer puzzling questions This second edition of Teaching Religious and Worldviews Education Creatively includes fully updated chapters from the first edition with 11 new contributors and 5 brand new chapters New topics include Visits visitors and persona dolls The RE Searchers approach New ideas about policy practice and assessment Insights into RE in the UK and around the world Anti discriminatory RE New and updated practical classroom ideas from practicing teachers Teaching Religious and Worldviews Education Creatively is for all teachers who want to learn more about innovative teaching and learning in RWE in order to improve understanding knowledge and enjoyment while at the same time transforming their own as well as their pupils lives Student Teacher's Perceptions of the Pre-Service Mathematics Programme in a Primary Teachers' College in Zimbabwe Barnabas Muyengwa,2013 This case study investigated the perceptions of the third year student teachers of the first year pre service Mathematics programme at Seke Teachers College in Zimbabwe Student background characteristics of gender age teaching experience and Mathematics specialisation were the independent variables also investigated Data was collected from 278 third year students enrolled for the general Diploma in Education course using questionnaires with a five point Likert type 33 item rating scale and open ended items The data so collected were analysed both quantitatively and qualitatively The findings indicated that although the programme was able to provide students with a foundation in subject knowledge more could be done to improve on training in teaching methods and provision of resources From the variables investigated gender was found to have an effect on students perceptions of the programme but teaching experience was found to have no effect The possible relationship between the independent variables of age and Mathematics specialisation and the dependent variable of students perception of the programme was indicated in too few items to warrant a definite conclusion Implications for the improvement of the programme are that there is need for the college to revisit some aspects of the structure and organisation of the programme There is also need for further research involving all primary teachers colleges

Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana Yonah

Matemba,Richardson Addai-Mununkum,2021-03-15 Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana contributes to the literature on opportunities and complexities of inclusive approaches to Religious Education RE It analyses how RE in Malawi and Ghana engages with religious pluralisation and provides a compelling case for the need to re evaluate current approaches in the conceptualisation curriculum design and delivery of RE in schools in Malawi and Ghana The book explains how a pervasive tradition of selection involving exclusion and inclusion of religion in RE leads to misrepresentation and in turn to misclusion of non normative religions where religion is included but marginalized and misrepresented The book contributes to wider discourse of RE on opportunities as well as complexities of post confessional approaches including the need for RE to avoid perpetuating the continued legitimisation of selected religions and in the process the delegitimization of the religious other as a consequence of misrepresentation and misclusion Inspired by Braten s methodology for comparative studies in RE the book draws on two qualitative studies from Malawi and Ghana to highlight the pervasive problems of religious misclusion in RE This book will be of great interest for academics scholars and post graduate students in the fields of RE African education educational policy international education and comparative education

Inspirational Guide for the Implementation of PRME Principles for Responsible Management Education,2017-09-08 Since the inception of the United Nations Global Compact sponsored initiative Principles for Responsible Management Education PRME in 2007 there has been increased debate over how to adapt management education to best meet the demands of the 21st century business environment While consensus has been reached by the majority of globally focused management education institutions that sustainability must be incorporated into management education curricula the relevant question is no longer _why_ management education should change but _how_ Although the PRME initiative is set to increase to 1 000 signatories by 2015 it is equally important for PRME to cultivate actively engaged participants Therefore the next step is for current participants to transition from a global learning community to an action community For this purpose the PRME Secretariat invited a small group of experts to coordinate an Inspirational Guide for the Implementation of PRME which was presented at the 3rd Global Forum for Responsible Management Education the official platform for management related Higher Education Institutions HEIs at both the Global Compact Rio 20 Corporate Sustainability Forum and the UN Conference on Sustainable Development Rio 20 in June 2012 in Rio de Janeiro The Guide answers the most frequently asked questions concerning the implementation of PRME by highlighting real world examples from the most engaged signatories The exercise has proven successful and this publication features 63 case stories from 47 institutions representing 25 countries across Asia Oceania the Americas Europe the Middle East and Africa They are the real actors in this effort and their stories are truly inspirational Their experiences are classified into six sections which address the Six Principles of PRME Purpose Values Method Research Partnership and Dialogue as well as important related aspects such as how to get started how to successfully report on PRME adoption and so on The full richness of experiences set forth in this Guide is captured only by reading the wealth of innovative practices found in each case
