

Dear Parents of Mrs. X,

I would like to introduce myself as your ROOM Parent! I am here to help plan the parties, get Mrs. X gifts, but mostly to help make this a great year for our kids! I am VERY open to help from any and all of you!

First, I'd like to give you some important info:

1. Class parties include: (see your teacher)
 - Halloween
 - Winter
 - Spring
 - End of Year

(As a general rule...all parties will be the day before school is let out (usually a Friday) and will follow a recess)

2. Teacher Gifts/Events include:
 - Her birthday
 - Winter Holiday
 - Teacher Appreciation Gift
 - End of Year

For each party, I'll put a SIGN-UP SHEET on the door a week before the party or send an email asking for things like (drinks, cupcakes, chips, plates, etc.)

For the gifts, rather than asking for donations for each gift individually, this letter is requesting each family provide a single donation now. Our goal is to collect $5-$15 dollars from each family. However, please donate what you are able!

I am looking to a FUN FILLED year for our children, as well as Mrs. X!

Please FEEL FREE to contact me at any time!!

Thank you again.

No Slam Dunk Cheryl Cooky, Michael A. Messner, 2018-05-30 In just a few decades sport has undergone a radical gender transformation However Cheryl Cooky and Michael A Messner suggest that the progress toward gender equity in sports is far from complete The continuing barriers to full and equal participation for young people the far lower pay for most elite level women athletes and the continuing dearth of fair and equal media coverage all underline how much still has yet to change before we see gender equality in sports The chapters in No Slam Dunk show that is this not simply a story of an unfinished revolution Rather they contend it is simplistic optimism to assume that we are currently nearing the conclusion of a story of linear progress that ends with a certain future of equality and justice This book provides important theoretical and empirical insights into the contemporary world of sports to help explain the unevenness of social change and how despite significant progress gender equality in sports has been No Slam Dunk

The Kaleidoscope of Gender Joan Z. Spade, Catherine G. Valentine, 2011 An accessible timely and stimulating introduction to the sociology of gender The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms Patterns and Possibilities Third Edition provides a comprehensive analysis of key ideas theories and applications in this field as viewed through the metaphor of a kaleidoscope This collection of creative articles by top scholars explains how the complex evolving pattern of gender is constructed interpersonally institutionally and culturally and challenges students to question how gender shapes their daily lives Like the prior edition the Third Edition maintains a focus on contemporary contributions to the field while incorporating classical and theoretical arguments to provide a broad framework Integrating a cross cultural focus and intersectional inquiry this unique text reader vividly illustrates that gender is a malleable continuum of prisms patterns and possibilities The Deathday

The Middle School Classroom Angela Vaughn Averitt,2008 Middle school is the Rodney Dangerfield of the education system it gets no respect We ve all heard disparaging comments about it in fact we ve all lived through it and most of us would probably never choose to go back to that point in time But some people actually choose to teach middle schoolers while others are assigned that level when they enter the profession Now there s a manual to help middle school teachers especially those just beginning their careers First time author Averitt writes from experience she s been an educator since 1997 here offering a step by step guide that deals with all areas of teaching from organizing the classroom to establishing order to gaining students respect Perhaps too basic for some in the profession this work could be a godsend to others Recommended for both academic and public libraries Terry Christner Library Journal
