No Slam Dunk Cheryl Cooky,Michael A. Messner,2018-05-30 In just a few decades sport has undergone a radical gender transformation However Cheryl Cooky and Michael A Messner suggest that the progress toward gender equity in sports is far from complete The continuing barriers to full and equal participation for young people the far lower pay for most elite level women athletes and the continuing dearth of fair and equal media coverage all underline how much still has yet to change before we see gender equality in sports The chapters in No Slam Dunk show that is this not simply a story of an unfinished revolution Rather they contend it is simplistic optimism to assume that we are currently nearing the conclusion of a story of linear progress that ends with a certain future of equality and justice This book provides important theoretical and empirical insights into the contemporary world of sports to help explain the unevenness of social change and how despite significant progress gender equality in sports has been No Slam Dunk

Youth Sport and Spirituality Patrick Kelly S.J.,2015-08-15 One of the ten best recent Catholic sports books America Magazine Unsportsmanlike behavior by student athletes or parents at youth sporting events happens with regularity these days Much recent research reveals that young people are dropping out of sport at alarming rates due to the often toxic elements in the culture of youth sports The timely innovative essays in Youth Sport and Spirituality present a wide ranging overview that draws on resources from Catholic spiritual and theological traditions to address problems such as these as well as opportunities in youth sport in the United States The book consists of two sections In the first prominent scholars in philosophy psychology theology and spirituality reflect on how youth sport contributes to the integral development of the person and his or her grasp of spiritual values The second half of the book consists of chapters written by coaches athletic directors and specialists working with youth coaches These practitioners share how their approaches to working with youth in sport contribute to the integral development of their players and their openness to transcendent values The essays examine coaching as ministry youth sport and moral development and how parents can act as partners in youth sports among other topics The book will interest coaches athletic directors and youth ministers in Catholic elementary and high schools in parish settings as well as undergraduate and graduate students in education who are preparing to teach in Catholic schools Contributors Patrick Kelly SJ Daniel A Dombrowski Nicole M LaVoi Mike McNamee Clark Power David Light Shields Brenda Light Bredemeier Richard R Gaillardetz Kristin Komyatte Sheehan Dobie Moser Jim Yerkovich Sherri Retif James Charles Naggi and Edward Hastings
