Pageant World History Gerald Leinwand, 1990. Dear students, I want to share a dream with you. I dreamed that a young person of 14, whom I was going to be teaching, would become president of the United States during the first half of the twenty-first century. As a teacher, I was struck by this immense responsibility. What should I teach my student about the world as preparation for this awesome task? How could my world history class help this person to mature into an intelligent and humane president and leader of the free world?
