When it's crucial crunch time and your Advanced Placement exam is just around the corner, you need REA's Crash Course for AP European History. About the Author: Larry Krieger earned his B.A. and M.A.T. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and his M.A. from Wake Forest University. In a career spanning more than 40 years, Mr. Krieger has taught a variety of AP subjects including U.S. History, World History, European History, U.S. Government, and Art History. His popular courses were renowned for their energetic presentations, commitment to scholarship, and success in helping students achieve high AP exam scores. All of Mr. Krieger's students scored above a 3, with most students scoring a 4 or a 5. In 2004 and 2005, the College Board recognized Mr. Krieger as one of the nation's foremost AP teachers. Mr. Krieger's success has extended far beyond the classroom. He conducts SAT and AP workshops around the country and has spoken at numerous Social Studies conferences. In addition, he is the author of several widely used American History and World History textbooks, as well as REA's Crash Course test preps for European History, U.S. History, U.S. Government, Politics, and Psychology. Educational Outlook, 1929. (Re)Imagining Content-Area Literacy Instruction, Roni Jo Draper, Paul Broomhead, Amy Peterson Jensen, Daniel Siebert, Jeffrey D. Nokes, 2015-04-18. Today's teachers need to prepare students for a world that places increasingly higher literacy demands on its citizens. In this timely book, the authors explore content area literacy and instruction in English, music, science, mathematics, social studies, visual arts, technology, and theatre. Each of the chapters has been written by teacher educators who are experts in their discipline. Their key recommendations reflect the aims and instructional frameworks unique to content area learning. This resource focuses on how literacy specialists and content area educators can combine their talents to teach all readers and writers in the middle and secondary school classroom. The text features vignettes from classroom practice with visuals to demonstrate, for example, how we read a painting or hear the discourse of a song. Additional contributors: Marta Adair, Diane L. Asay, Sharon R. Gray, Sirpa Grierson, Scott Hendrickson, Steven L. Shumway, Geoffrey A. Wright. Roni Jo Draper is an associate professor in the Department of Teacher Education in the David O. McKay School of Education. Paul Broomhead is associate professor and coordinator of the Music Education Division.

Athanasou, 2009-01-01 This book is a natural step beyond our earlier text A Teacher's Guide to Assessment which was published almost six years ago The purpose of this book is to offer a straightforward guide to educational assessment for teachers at all levels of education including trainers and instructors The scope of this book is wider however and the targeted audience is broader than the first edition It is designed to address the needs not only of those taking a first course in educational assessment and measurement but it can also usefully serve students at the post graduate level as well as experienced teachers trainers and instructors who would like to update their knowledge and acquire practical skills using relevant quantitative methods The book is appropriate for an international audience In this revised edition we have added new and important material which covers the assessment arrangements necessary for people with special needs and the use of technology for assessment purposes We have elaborated on the dangers of differential item functioning we have extended the Rasch measurement material and enriched the book with practical examples using Microsoft Excel The main message of the book is that assessment is not based on commonsense but on a huge body of international research and application over many years Testing is a powerful vital and large part of a teacher's assessment arsenal because it can be practical structured and very informative The correct use of testing either in its traditional paper and pencil form or in its modern technology based style can be a formidable ally for every teacher who aspires to practise evidence based teaching and learning International Perspectives on Teaching Rival Histories Henrik

Åström Elmersjö, Anna Clark, Monika Vinterek, 2017-04-04 This book presents a survey of approaches to dealing with rival histories in the classroom arguing that approaching this problem requires great sensitivity to differing national educational and narrative contexts Contested narratives and disputed histories have long been an important issue in history teaching all over the world and have even been described as the history or culture wars In this book authors from across the globe ponder the question what can teachers do and what are they doing to address conflicting narratives of the same past and puts an epistemological issue at the heart of the discussion what does it mean for the epistemology of history if it is possible to teach more than one narrative Divided into three sections that deal with historical cultures multicultural societies and multiperspectivity the chapters of the book showcase that dealing with rival histories is very much dependent on context and that diverse teaching traditions and societal debates mean that teachers abilities in engaging with the teaching of rival narratives are very different The volume will be compelling reading for students and researchers in the fields of education history sociology and philosophy as well as practising teachers

The Common Core, an Uncommon Opportunity Judith K. March, Karen H. Peters, 2013-10-29 Because the Common Core requires bold action Why The Common Core an Uncommon Opportunity Why now Because it tackles a largely overlooked component of successful implementation how to redesign your instructional delivery system K 12 And you ll have to if you don t you ll be subject to the very same failure and frustration so many other districts and schools are experiencing What s more March and Peters describe how to integrate 21st Century Skills at the very same time What are the big benefits of this book If you re a district leader it will help you Develop consistent and structured teaching and learning practices across content areas Ensure sustainable processes through continuous curriculum review and revision Strategically use data to monitor student performance goals Support and sustain enacted reforms through district wide infrastructure adjustments Provide teachers with Common Core aligned course tools including sample curriculum maps lessons and specific teaching suggestions There s no need to start from scratch or attempt to reinvent the wheel March and Peters have done much of the prep for you Their processes and tools have already worked in numerous districts and they can be custom fit to yours This system helped us not only re invent ourselves but also build the internal capacity we needed to maintain our momentum This book is a must for any district that is serious about taking advantage of the Common Core to re invent itself Connie Hathorn Ph D Superintendent Youngstown City School District Few books offer such deep and specific information to assist the field in successful implementation of the Common Core and state learning standards This book is a gift to practitioners of all levels and those practicing in any type of school or district Dr Lynn Macan Cobleskill Richmondville CSD
