Trauma and Resilience in Contemporary Australian Policing Andrew Paterson, 2021-08-18 This book examines how fifty police officers in South Australia keep well and bounce back from duty-related traumatic experience in the absence of practical accessible and timely organisational support It investigates mechanisms police officers presently use to normalise their duty-related traumatic experiences to preserve the delicate professional balance between coping and psychic numbing and avoid the much publicised perils of a PTSD diagnosis while being appropriately responsive to colleagues victims and survivors in their daily work environment By revealing how police officers manage trauma outside of the expectations of mental health professionals union representatives and police leadership innovative approaches and recommendations are offered to support first responders in moving from assumptions of post-traumatic stress and through post-traumatic growth The book considers recent advances in post-traumatic growth and resilience theory and reinterprets exposure in a positive context as well as preventative experiences in Australia and internationally

Literature and the Rise of the Interview Rebecca Roach, 2018-11-21 Today interviews proliferate everywhere in newspapers on television and in anthologies as a method they are a major tool of medicine the law the social sciences oral history projects and journalism and in the book trade interviews with authors are a major promotional device We live in an interview society How did this happen What is it about the interview form that we find so appealing and horrifying Are we all just gossips or is there something more to it What are the implications of our reliance on this bizarre dynamic for publicity subjectivity and democracy Literature and the Rise of the Interview addresses these questions from the perspective of literary culture The book traces the ways in which the interview form has been conceived and deployed by writers and interviewing has been understood as a literary critical practice It excavates what we might call a poetics of the interview form and practice In so doing it covers 150 years and four continents It includes a diverse rostrum of well-known writers such as Henry James T S Eliot Ezra Pound Djuna Barnes William Burroughs Philip Roth J M Coetzee and Toni

Morrison while reintroducing some individuals that history has forgotten such as Betty Ross Queen of Interviewers and Julian Hawthorne Nathaniel's profligate son Together these stories expose the interview's position in the literary imagination and consider what this might tell us about conceptions of literature authorship and reading communities in modernity

Mind the Backlash: Gender Discrimination and Sexism in Contemporary Societies Hilde Coffe,Susan Banducci,Marta Fraile,Jessica

Fortin-Rittberger,Amy Alexander,2023-09-26 Decades of campaigns and policy efforts have brought significant progress in women s economic and political status and pushed gender equality up the global policy agenda The goal of gender equality however still remains largely out of reach as illustrated by the recent wave of women s protests against sexual harassment assault and gender violence e g MeToo movement Some European countries e g Poland Hungary and Lithuania have even seen their performance on gender equality backslide in recent years and in parallel to calls for increased equality a wave of mobilisation against gender equality has appeared in the public discourse Conservative authoritarian and populist voices in many democracies are now contesting the equal participation of men and women in society under the auspices of a war on gender ideology This backlash against women s empowerment carries considerable implications for anti discrimination laws policies protecting women against domestic violence reproductive health and the establishment of gender quotas Given the backlash against gender observed in various countries around the globe we argue that now is a critical time to revisit and broaden our knowledge about gender discrimination gender equality and sexism Our proposed Research Topic will provide a gender perspective to illustrate and understand the recent illiberal turn in politics in a variety of contexts Taking a comparative approach we aim at improving our understanding of how sexism discrimination and gender equality operate at the societal level and how they shape broader social and political views At the individual level we will study the current seemingly opposing forces for and against gender equality by analysing the antecedents predispositions experiences and motivations explaining and underpinning these attitudes towards different ways of gender equality sexism and discrimination

Contemporary Families: Therapeutic Support for New Challenges Sara Skandrani,Ricarda Mewes,Marion Feldman,2022-07-26

Handbook of Contemporary Behavioral Economics Morris Altman,2015-01-30 At a time when both scholars and the public demand explanations and answers to key economic problems that conventional approaches have failed to resolve this groundbreaking handbook of original works by leading behavioral economists offers the first comprehensive articulation of behavioral economics theory Borrowing from the findings of psychologists sociologists political scientists legal scholars and biologists among others behavioral economists find that intelligent individuals often tend not to behave as effectively or efficiently in their economic decisions as long held by conventional wisdom The manner in which individuals actually do behave critically depends on psychological institutional cultural and even biological considerations Handbook of Contemporary Behavioral Economics includes coverage of such critical areas as the Economic Agent Context and Modeling Decision Making Experiments and Implications Labor Issues Household and Family Issues Life and Death Taxation Ethical Investment and Tipping and Behavioral Law and Macroeconomics Each contribution includes an extensive bibliography

The Many Faces of the Contemporary Russian Propaganda in the Balkans Vladimir Đorđević, 2024-09-05 The Many Faces of the Contemporary Russian Propaganda in the Balkans Sputnik Srbija analyzes information published by the news website Sputnik Srbija during the first year of the Russian invasion of Ukraine This book provides an overview of the contemporary Serbian media sphere and the dire conditions that Serbian journalists face to explore how Russian propaganda has flourished in the region This volume establishes a framework to understand the ideological core of Russian propaganda that above all aims to reconstruct societal reality through anti Western rhetoric This framework helps to explore the relationship between Russian propaganda and Serbian nationalism expanding on the significance of their mutual ties and confronting the implications of their close knit connections
