CASE STUDY FOR GROUP PRESENTATION INTERPROFESSIONAL CASE # 21

- Read the following case scenario carefully.
- The objective here is to have the opportunity to learn about a team member (i.e. a staff member or provider) from another profession and/or role.
- Refer to the group assignment as to how to answer this case.

You are a George Brown College semester 2 practical nursing student in a clinical placement with your group members at one of the GTA healthcare facilities. You have been asked to shadow a Denturist as they work with others in their role and interact with patients/clients/family/staff members/providers.

Answer the questions of the provided assignment and be prepared to present the role of this interprofessional team member to the class?

Reflect on the following further questions if time permits:

1. What did you learn about this profession/role that you did not know previously?
2. What are the similarities and differences between this profession/role and practical nursing?
