

BE PATIENT

A man came out of his home to admire his new truck.

To his puzzlement, his three-year-old son was happily hammering dents into the shiny paint of the truck.

The man ran to his son, knocked him away, and hammered the little boy's hands into pulp as punishment.

When the father calmed down, he rushed his son to the hospital. Although the doctor tried desperately to save the crushed bones, he finally had to amputate fingers from boy's both hands.

When the boy woke up from the surgery and saw his bandaged stubs, he innocently said, "Daddy, I'm sorry about your truck." Then he asked, "But when are my fingers going to grow back?"

The father went home and committed suicide.

Think about this story the next time someone steps on your feet or you wish to take revenge. Think first before you lose your patience with someone u love. Trucks can be repaired. Broken bones and hurt feelings often can't.

Too often we fail to recognize the difference between the person and the performance. We forget that forgiveness is greater than revenge.

Religious Short Narrative:

The Best Christian Short Stories Bret Lott, 2006-07-02 The first volume in a collection of contemporary fiction that combines the artistry of critically acclaimed writers with a clear Christian worldview From Homer Hickam the best selling author of Rocket Boys which later became the movie October Sky to editor and contributing best selling author Bret Lott this collection spans a talented community writing an eclectic blend of fiction Each piece stands alone as stellar fiction And each piece confronts us with who we are and forces us to look deeply at the human condition From the dirt lanes of North Africa to the suburbs of California exuding lightheartedness and profundity hilarity and tragedy these stories will take you on a fresh and entertaining journey Religious Narratives in Contemporary Culture ,2021-04-26 Religious Narratives in Contemporary Culture Between Cultural Memory and Transmediality analyses the meaning and role of religion in western cultural practices in the twenty first century This inquiry situates itself at the intersection between cultural memory studies and the transmedial study of narrative and art Contributors focus on genres which have yet to receive significant critical attention within the field including speculative fiction films and television series autobiographical prose and poetry and action adventure video games In this time of crisis where traces of religious thinking still persist in the presence or absence of religious faith this volume s collective look into some of their cultural embodiments is necessary and timely The volume is addressed primarily to scholars and students interested in intersections between religious and cultural studies revisions of traditional religious narratives literature as a space of reflection on today s world contemporary media studies and remediation Maria Sabina Draga Alexandru s editing work in the last stages of this volume was supported by a grant of the Romanian Ministry of Education and Research CNCS UEFISCDI project number PN III P3 3 6 H2020 0035 Narrative Cultures and the Aesthetics of Religion Dirk Johannsen, Anja Kirsch, Jens Kreinath, 2020-01-29 Narrative Cultures and the Aesthetics of Religion presents the aesthetics of narrativity in religious contexts by approaching narrative acts as situated modes of engaging with reality equally shaped by the immersive character of the stories told and the sensory qualities of their performances Introducing narrative cultures as an integrative framework of analysis the volume builds a bridge between classical content based approaches to narrative sources and the aesthetic study of religions as constituted by sensory and mediated practices Studying stories in conjunction with the role that performative acts of storytelling play in the cultivation of the senses the contributors explore the efficacy of storytelling formats in narrative cultures from ancient times until today in regions and cultures across the globe Contributors are Stefan Binder Arianna Borrelli Markus Altena Davidsen Laura Feldt Ingvild S lid Gilhus Dirk Johannsen Jens Kreinath Isabel Laack Martin Lehnert Brigitte Luchesi Bastiaan van Rijn Caroline Widmer Annette Wilke Katharina Wilkens Book of Short Stories Alexander C. Parker, 2013-10-08 Book of Short Stories presents a collection of short stories that have been written over a twenty five year period Some were used as closing thoughts given to the boys of several Boy Scout troops at the end of meetings when author Alexander C Parker served as both an assistant scoutmaster and as scoutmaster These stories show how God can and does work in the lives of people through the leading of the Holy Spirit and how it is possible to find new direction in your life by letting God and the Holy Spirit speak to you It is hoped that by reading each story and letting the theme of that story remain with you that it will help in providing a new and stronger positive outlook and make you the reader more confident in your walk of life There is a very clear message on Salvation and several opportunities to accept Jesus Christ as your Personal Lord and Savior Parker is also the author of Jesus of the Future both books seek to lead readers to understand God more clearly

Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9 11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9 11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9 11

The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman's preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn't always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expositional nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O'Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching Religion and Science Fiction James H. Thrall, 2024-05-17 Religion and Science Fiction An Introduction guides students into deeper understanding of how religion and science fiction engage often overlapping questions This textbook introduces key ideas of religious studies through critical consideration of print and visual media that fall within the general category of science fiction The goal throughout is to help students move beyond simply identifying points of interrelation between religious studies and forms of what is often called more broadly speculative fiction to considering how the studied texts open new ways of thinking about human and nonhuman experience taken to be religious With discussion questions lists of key terms extensive additional resources and suggestions for projects and essay questions this book is a foundational text for students and instructors of religion and science fiction The American Directory of Writer's Guidelines Stephen Blake Mettee, Michelle Doland, Doris Hall, 2005-12 Perhaps the best kept secret in the publishing industry is that many publishers both periodical publishers and book publishers make available writer s guidelines to assist would be contributions Written by the staff at each publishing house these guidelines help writers target their submissions to the exact needs of the individual publisher The American Directory of Writer s Guidelines is a compilation of the actual writer s guidelines for more than 1 600 publishers A one of a kind source to browse for article short story poetry and book ideas Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library, 1919 Law, Freedom and Story John C. Hoffman, 2013-11-30 Rarely has an author illuminated in one book an aspect of religious study with attention to so many disciplines John Hoffman skilfully interrelates the fields of psychology mythology anthropology literature and New Testament studies to show their common use of narration techniques Hoffman explains how the storytelling nature of myths parables and psychotherapy seeks to heal and to bring wholeness to both the individual and to a social grouping Bringing into this discussion the tension between law the stabilizing factor of a society and freedom the spontaneous and creative urges that move outside of social order Hoffman shows how rituals function to affirm the order of the culture in which they exist yet as they open up the realm of the imagination they provide the possibility for disruption For as long as fantasy is a part of narration both in telling and hearing the social order can be both criticized and superseded Hoffman clearly sets his work within the genre of Crossan Perls Jaffe Turner Grimes Buechner and Eliade Carefully examining the work of Tom Driver and John Cobb he expresses the need to go beyond traditional structures and formulations in order to move theology closer to narrative A narrative form Hoffman argues can both affirm faith and invite believers to transcend its expression and break free of its strictures providing for an ever more dynamic theology Christian Writers' Market Guide 2011 Sally E.
