Positioning is hot Not only in the realm of consumer goods manufacturers but also for other companies institutions governments and even individual persons An explosion of good quality products on the market and targeted media and advertising campaigns has led to an increasing interest from organizations as to how to strategically position their brand Up to now only a few books on positioning were published Positioning the Brand picks up the gauntlet with an approach based on two fundamental choices Firstly the book was written from the perspective of the brand manager and has therefore been shaped as a practical roadmap Secondly this book advocates a new stance on positioning teaching the reader to look from the inside out instead of adopting the usual outside in methodology This inside out approach departs from an analysis of the corporate identity enabling better fulfilment of external positioning and ensuring internal support This book is intended for future managers marketing professionals and communication professionals responsible for the commercial success and reputation of a brand The contents have a practical set up reinforced by engaging examples and enable the reader to individually complete a positioning process

Dialogue and the New Cosmopolitanism Fred Dallmayr,2022-11-28

Dialogue and the New Cosmopolitanism Conversations with Edward Demenchonok stands in opposition to the doctrine that might makes right and that the purpose of politics is to establish domination over others rather than justice and the good life for all In the pursuit of the latter goal the book stresses the importance of dialogue with participants who take seriously the views and interests of others and who seek to reach a fair solution In this sense the book supports the idea of cosmopolitanism which by contrast to empire involves multi lateral cooperation and thus the quest for a just cosmopolis The international contributors to this volume with their varied perspectives are all committed to this same quest Edited by Fred Dallmayr the chapters take the form of conversations with Edward Demenchonok a well known practitioner of international and cross cultural philosophy The conversations are structured in parts that stress the philosophical anthropological cultural and ethical dimensions of global dialogue In our conflicted world it is inspiring to find so many authors from different places agreeing on a shared vision
