Fictions of Integration Naomi Lesley,2017-03-03 This book examines how children s and young adult literature addresses and interrogates the legacies of American school desegregation Such literature narrates not only the famous battles to implement desegregation in the South in places like Little Rock Arkansas but also more insidious and less visible legacies such as re segregation within schools through the mechanism of disability diagnosis Novelizations of children s experiences with school desegregation comment upon the politics of getting African American children access to white schools but more than this as school stories they also comment upon how structural racism operates in the classroom and mutates over the course of decades through the pedagogical practices depicted in literature for young readers Lesley combines approaches from critical race theory disability studies and educational philosophy in order to investigate how the educational market simultaneously constrains how racism in schools can be presented to young readers and also provides channels for radical critiques of pedagogy and visions of alternative systems The volume examines a range of titles from novels that directly engage the Brown v Board of Education decision such as Sharon Draper s Fire From the Rock and Dorothy Sterling s Mary Jane to novels that engage less obvious legacies of desegregation such as Cynthia Voigt s Dacey s Song Sharon Flake s Pinned Virginia Hamilton s The Planet of Junior Brown and Louis Sachar s Holes This book will be of interest to scholars of American studies children s literature and educational philosophy and history

Cinema as Pulpit J. Ryan Parker,2014-01-10 Sherwood Pictures is the filmmaking ministry of Sherwood Baptist Church in Albany Georgia and the leading producer of church based independent Christian films This book situates their work in the history of religion and film in America and shows how they bring to fruition early 20th century Protestant expectations for the use of film in the life of the church and their hopes for a vibrant Christian film industry Also covered are the handful of churches inspired by Sherwood that have taken up their own cameras to create a growing church film movement This book offers another examination of the relationship between conservative evangelical Protestant Christianity and the wider popular culture

Culturally Affirming Literacy Practices for

Urban Elementary Students Lakia M. Scott, Barbara Purdum-Cassidy, 2016-08-17 The nation's demographic of public schools are more ethnically racially and linguistically diverse than ever before Strauss 2014 However there are still educational policies and practices that call to question whether traditionally marginalized students receive an equitable education This is demonstrated in national achievement trends which highlight disproportionality ratings among minoritized student groups Also when examining school discipline policies expulsion ratings special education services and school choice movements all seem to handicap educational opportunity for low income Black and Brown students As American schools become more and more diverse it is imperative that the literacy practices used to teach young students of color reflect the nation's changing demographic This book provides practical insights guided by conceptual and contextual knowledge in understanding how to teach urban African American and Hispanic Latino students by discussing issues associated with critical pedagogies literacy and culturally appropriate instructional strategies that have demonstrated success for traditionally marginalized student populations This book examines culturally affirming literacy practices from three main components 1 scholarship 2 the field of practice and 3 teacher education models Each of these three are significant in understanding how to teach minoritized populations As such chapters have been organized into three main sections that address scholarship and research trends in the field and implications for teacher education models all in order to advance the literacy achievement of African American and Hispanic Latino students Leonard Maltin's 2009 Movie Guide Leonard Maltin, Luke Sader, Mike Clark, 2008 Offers readers a comprehensive reference to the world of film including more than ten thousand DVD titles along with information on performers ratings running times plots and helpful features The Student EQ Edge Korrel Kanoy, Steven J. Stein, Howard E. Book, 2013-01-28 THE STUDENT EQEDGE Facilitation and Activity Guide This Facilitation and Activity Guide is a companion to the book The Student EQ Edge Emotional Intelligence and Your Academic and Personal Success It offers faculty and facilitators a hands on resource for helping students reach their potential by tapping into the power of emotional intelligence The Facilitation Guide includes exercises and activities which are designed to help students develop confidence independence the ability to set and meet goals impulse control social responsibility problem solving skills stress tolerance and much more all of which help improve academic success The Guide also contains a wealth of illustrative case studies questions for student reflection movie selections and TV shows that illustrate emotional intelligence and a self development plan The single best resource on emotional intelligence in student affairs The Student EQ Edge Student Workbook and Facilitation and Activity Guide are well organized creative and offer everything an emotional intelligence facilitator would need in a fast paced student affairs environment The examples are soundly constructed and resonate with students These materials are my go to resources Candice Johnston associate director of student leadership and organizations Wake Forest University If I were building a new course to improve student success it would be founded on emotional intelligence All the instruction in the world on study skills cannot touch the advantages that come to students who are able to manage their emotional intelligence And the best news of all is that these skills can be taught EQ skills make the difference Randy L Swing executive director Association for Institutional Research This Facilitation and Activity Guide is particularly useful offering options from which the facilitator can draw in preparing assignments or learning community meetings The focus on learners needs and particularly an authentic exploration of self and purpose is practical yet has the potential to draw students to a deeper understanding of self that will draw them to high performance and contribution to others Dennis Roberts assistant vice president for faculty and student services for the Qatar Foundation
