First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 The Victorian Novel Dreams of the Real Audrey Jaffe,2016 The Victorian Novel Dreams of the Real presents a new interpretation of the Victorian realist novel based on realism's desire for the real In provocative readings of novels by Eliot Dickens Trollope Hardy and Collins Jaffe redefines realist conventions and reinterprets long held theories about realist representation Magic City Nights Andre Millard,2017-04-04 This exploration of rock n roll music and culture in Birmingham Alabama is based on the oral histories of musicians their fans and professionals in the popular music industry Collected over a twenty year period their stories describe the coming of rock n roll in the 1950s the rise of the garage bands in the 1960s of southern rock in the 1970s and of alternative music in the 1980s and 1990s Told in the words of the musicians themselves Magic City Nights provides an insider's view of the dramatic changes in the business and status of popular music from the era of the vacuum tube to twenty first century digital technology These collective memories offer a unique perspective on the impact of a subversive and racially integrated music culture in one of the most conservative and racially divided cities in the country The Book of Lost Names Kristin Harmel,2021-05-25 As a graduate student in 1942 Eva was forced to flee Paris after the arrest of her father a Polish Jew Finding refuge in a small mountain town in the Free Zone she begins forging identity documents for Jewish children fleeing to neutral Switzerland But erasing people comes with a price and Eva decides she must find a way to preserve the real names of the children who are too young to remember who they really are Sixty five years later a book is discovered that appears to contain some sort of code but researchers don't know where it came from or what the code means Only Eva holds the answer but will she have the strength to revisit old memories and help reunite those lost during the war Code Name Christiane Clouet Claire Chevrillon,1995 In 1943 Claire Chevrillon code named Christiane Clouet became head of the Code Service in Paris for General de Gaulle's Delegation and served as the main link in the lines of communication flowing between the Free French Government in London and the Delegation Provisional Government in France It was Chevrillon and her team who coded many of the telegrams in Is Paris Burning Until now little has been published about this unglamorous but vital aspect of the French Resistance Chevrillon's memoir gives abundant detail about what daily life was like for the French elite during the German occupation Her father a scholar and literary critic who had been raised by his celebrated uncle philosopher historian Hippolyte Taine put her in contact with the upper circles of French culture Her mother who was from a large assimilated Jewish family gave her first hand knowledge of the persecution of French Jews Her story vividly portrays the wartime experience of private lives and public events including the tedious backroom work of the Resistance and four months she spent captive in Paris's dreaded Fresnes prison The way Chevrillon tells her story is almost as remarkable as the story itself Evenhandedly and without embellishment she relives the days of the occupation the arrest and deportation of her prominent Jewish relatives her own role in the underground network and the eventual liberation of France The straightforward even brisk style with which Chevrillon writes together with the breadth of her experience and her extensive contacts in French society give a perspective not often encountered in stories of the World War II underground Perhaps most important Chevrillon demonstrates that heroism can take quiet hidden forms Asset Allocation and Private Markets
