Scheduling and Applications addresses the perennial problem of optimal utilization of finite resources in the accomplishment of an assortment of tasks or objectives The book provides ways to uncover the core of these problems presents them in mathematical terms and devises mathematical solutions for them The book consists of 12 chapters Chapter 1 deals with network problems the shortest path problem and applications to control theory Chapter 2 stresses the role and use of computers based on the decision making problems outlined in the preceding chapter Chapter 3 classifies scheduling problems and their solution approaches Chapters 4 to 6 discuss machine sequencing problems and techniques Chapter 5 tackles capacity expansion problems and introduces the technique of embedded state space dynamic programming for reducing dimensionality so that larger problems can be solved Chapter 6 then examines an important class of network problems with non serial phase structures and exploits dimensionality reduction techniques such as the pseudo stage concept branch compression and optimal order elimination methods to solve large scale nonlinear network scheduling problems Chapters 7 to 11 consider the flow shop scheduling problem under different objectives and constraints Chapter 12 discusses

School Madhav Desai,2015-02-03 Amit loved his school in Bombay He liked his friends and his teachers So when his family moved to Baroda and he was admitted to a school there he was worried whether he would like his new school How would it feel to enter the classroom on the first day and only see strangers there Will he find friends and teachers like he had in the school in Bombay Amit had been participating in every activity in the familiar atmosphere of that school Would this be possible here Would there be as many activities in the school in Baroda Little did he know then how quickly once the school opened a number of exciting happenings were going to take place and how deeply Amit was going to get involved in each of them In this breezy story Madhav Desai captures the atmosphere in one class of the school events that take place during an academic year personalities of students and teachers and the changing nature of their interrelationship The

China's Policies on Its Borderlands and the International Implications Yufan Hao, Bill K. P. Chou, 2011 This book examines the interplay of two sets of policies the Chinese government's policies to its borderlands and international relations It proposes a conceptual framework and argues that China's policymakers fail to make complete use of the opportunities in the borderlands for accomplishing foreign policymakers agenda to strengthen China's relations with other countries neighboring ones in particular As a result these foreign policies reflect the political elites inadequate consideration of the negative impact of these policies on the borderlands and underscore their worry for territorial disintegration Therefore these policies center on the pursuit of central control through exercising administrative military coercion making the borderlands economically dependent standardizing the cultural identity and indoctrinating CCP defined ideology The challenges of the borderlands to the national integration are exaggerated so much that political elites pursued control and standardization at the expense of the identification of many people in borderlands with the regime China's international image and the relations with its neighbouring countries

Gospel According to St John Andrew Lincoln, 2005-11-25 The magnificent series of biblical commentaries known as Black's New Testament Commentaries BNTC under the General Editorship of Professor Morna Hooker has had a gap for far too long it has lacked an up to date commentary on the Fourth Gospel Professor Andrew Lincoln now fills this gap with his excellent new commentary The key questions for scholars are gone into thoroughly questions of historicity the use of historical traditions and sources relationship to the Synoptics authorship setting first readers and Professor Lincoln makes his own position on these issues abundantly clear The Fourth Gospel raises a number of problems generally known as The Johannine Question According to tradition the Gospel was written by St John the Apostle The authenticity of the tradition is examined in the introduction but the textual issues are examined within the commentary itself For example one problem is that Chapters 15 and 16 seem in early versions to have preceded chapter 14 Chapter 21 must have been a later addition The purpose of the Gospel as stated in Chapter 20 v 31 is to strengthen the reader's faith in Jesus as the Christ and the Son of God But even the celebrated prologue has given rise to much speculation whereas most commentators believe it is the key to the Gospel as a whole These issues are meat and drink to scholars but in Professor Lincoln s expert hands they are extremely interesting and highly pertinent to our contemporary understanding of the Gospel
