On Board RMS Titanic George Behe,2012-02-29 It would make the stones cry to hear those on board shrieking Daniel Buckley third class passenger For the first time in this moving new book Titanic s passengers and crewmen are permitted to tell the story of that lamentable disaster entirely in their own words Included are letters postcards diary entries and memoirs that were written before during and immediately after the maiden voyage itself Many of the pre sailing documents were composed by people who later lost their lives in the sinking and represent the last communications that these people ever had with their friends and loved ones at home The subsequent letters and postcards give an unparalleled description of the events that occurred during the five days that Titanic was at sea and the correspondence by survivors after the tragedy describes the horror of the disaster itself and the heartbreak they experienced at the loss of those they loved This poignant compilation by Titanic expert George Behe also contains brief biographies of the passengers and crewmen victims as well as survivors who wrote the documents in question Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1986

The Un Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and Its Optional Protocol Patricia Schulz,Ruth Halperin-Kaddari,Beate Rudolf,Marsha A. Freeman,2023-01-27 This volume is the fully revised and updated version of the first comprehensive commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and its Optional Protocol It reflects the developments during the decade following the publication of the first edition in 2012 which has also seen a notable rise in individual complaints more than 85 ten new General Recommendations and six new inquiry procedures as well as numerous statements partly in conjunction with other UN human rights bodies The Convention is a key international human rights instrument and the only one exclusively addressed to women It has been described as the United Nations landmark treaty in the struggle for women s rights At a time when the backlash against women s human rights and the concept of gender based discrimination is increasingly challenged by governments and powerful societal actors the Commentary is an important instrument to hold all state powers to account on their international obligations under the Convention The Commentary analyses the interpretation of the Convention through the work of its monitoring body the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women It comprises detailed analyses of the Preamble and each article of the Convention and of the Optional Protocol including a separate chapter on the cross cutting substantive issue of violence against women The sources relied on are the treaty language and the general recommendations concluding observations and case law under the Optional Protocol individual complaints and inquiries through which the Committee has interpreted and applied the Convention Each chapter is self contained but the Commentary is conceived of as an integral whole The book also includes an introduction which provides an overview of the Convention and its embedding in the international law of human rights as well as the most recent challenges to women s human rights worldwide
