

To Kill a Mockingbird Reading Questions Ch. 12-16

1. What three things have Scout bummed out at the beginning of the summer?

Atticus is going to leave for two weeks, Jem starts drifting from Scout, Dill isn't going to Maycomb (131/132).

2. What does Scout find unusual or amazing about Calpurnia's church (more than one thing).

Scout discovers that there's no hymn books and he finds that odd but when they start singing without them he is amazed that they are on pitch (135/136).

3. How does Calpurnia explain "n****r talk" to the children? Consider what Atticus has told them about that word. How might this be unfair and confusing to the children?

Cal said that if white people talk the way negroes speak it would be inappropriate and if it were the other way around it is still considered wrong. Insinuating everyone has their own niche and status quo depending on the color of your skin (143). Atticus taught Jem and Scout that the color of their skin does not matter therefore, it is confusing for them and changes their outlook on society.

4. What is revealed about Calpurnia's community when Reverend Sykes demands more money from the congregation?

It is revealed the community cares and would like to help Toms wife. They believe that's her would not have to leave her kids to work considering her husband is in jail (139).

5. What do the children (and readers) learn when they discover the congregation sings by linin'? How might this be a coming-of-age moment for Jem and Scout? (Consider Jem's naïve suggestion about buying hymn books.)

Jem and Scout discover that the church congregation cannot read. This coming-of-age moment helps them learn to be grateful and discover how fortunate they truly are (141).

6. Why does Aunt Alexandra come to visit? (According to her?)

Aunt Alexandra visits to provide Scout with feminist guidance and support (145).
