Grading the Nation's Report Card National Research Council,Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Board on Testing and Assessment,Committee on the Evaluation of National and State Assessments of Educational Progress,1999-01-23 Since the late 1960s the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP the nation s report card has been the only continuing measure of student achievement in key subject areas Increasingly educators and policymakers have expected NAEP to serve as a lever for education reform and many other purposes beyond its original role Grading the Nation s Report Card examines ways NAEP can be strengthened to provide more informative portrayals of student achievement and the school and system factors that influence it The committee offers specific recommendations and strategies for improving NAEP s effectiveness and utility including Linking achievement data to other education indicators Streamlining data collection and other aspects of its design Including students with disabilities and English language learners Revamping the process by which achievement levels are set The book explores how to improve NAEP framework documents which identify knowledge and skills to be assessed with a clearer eye toward the inferences that will be drawn from the results What should the nation expect from NAEP What should NAEP do to meet these expectations This book provides a blueprint for a new paradigm important to education policymakers professors and students as well as school administrators and teachers and education advocates How to Create and Use Rubrics for Formative Assessment and Grading Susan M. Brookhart,2013-01-11 What is a rubric A rubric is a coherent set of criteria for student work that describes levels of performance quality Sounds simple enough right Unfortunately rubrics are commonly misunderstood and misused The good news is that when rubrics are created and used correctly they are strong tools that support and enhance classroom instruction and student learning In this comprehensive guide author Susan M Brookhart identifies two essential components of effective rubrics 1 criteria that relate to the learning not the tasks that students are being asked to demonstrate and 2 clear descriptions of performance across a continuum of quality She outlines the difference between various kinds of rubrics for example general versus task specific and analytic versus holistic explains when using each type of rubric is appropriate and highlights examples from all grade levels and assorted content areas In addition Brookhart addresses Common misconceptions about rubrics Important differences between rubrics and other assessment tools such as checklists and rating scales and when such alternatives can be useful and How to use rubrics for formative assessment and grading including standards based grading and report card grades Intended for educators who are already familiar with rubrics as well as those who are not this book is a complete resource for writing effective rubrics and for choosing wisely from among the many rubrics that are available on the Internet and from other sources And it makes the case that rubrics when used appropriately can improve outcomes by helping teachers teach and helping students learn NAEP ... Writing Report Card ,1999 How to Make a Book Report, Grades 3-6 Kathleen Christopher Null,1997 Gives students an organized responsible and accountable way to do book report writing so that they will be encouraged and stimulated to develop an enjoyment of reading The Other Side of the Report Card Maurice J. Elias,Joseph J. Ferrito,Dominic C. Moceri,2015-12-14 To better serve the whole child look at the whole report card Although parents and teachers spend more time in conferences talking about behavior than they do about rubrics and test scores too many teachers are still guessing when it comes to using outdated behavior ratings and comments to describe the whole child With this book you ll take report cards to the next level integrating social emotional learning and character development into any grading system Resources include Guided exercises for analyzing existing report cards Suggested report card designs Tips on improving teacher parent communication Case studies Testimonials from teachers and students The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools, Third Edition Jo Nelson,2013-08-20 Why don t kids learn Why can t students do higher order thinking Why do educators have endless staff meetings with few results How can parents and teachers communicate better The pressure upon educators to teach more to a wider range and number of students with decreasing resources and supports makes it urgent to find tools to answer such questions The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools demonstrates how the Focused Conversation method widely used in organizations and businesses can effectively be used in a K 12 educational setting Each section deals with interactions among students staff and parents and elaborates with over 100 sample conversations designed to make learning more meaningful prevent and solve problems and make communications in meetings more effective Appendices showcase integrated curriculum examples where conversations have been used in unique combinations and list sample questions for each level of the conversation method With a bibliography and index included and patterned after its highly successful predecessor The Art of Focused Conversation 100 Ways to Access Group Wisdom in the Workplace this book will be welcomed by parents students educators and school administrators everywhere The Institute of Cultural Affairs has over 40 years experience in more than 32 nations A unique facilitation research and training organization ICA Canada has provided participatory skills to many thousands of people worldwide NAEP 1998 Writing Report Card for the Nation and the States Elissa A. Greenwald,1999 Crossing Literacy Bridges Jennifer Tuten,Deborah Ann Jensen,Charlene Klassen Endrizzi,2018-09-30 It has been well established that schools and families must work together to ensure academic and literacy success for all children Educators understand the importance of creating a learning connection between families and schools Families provide teachers with increased knowledge of students Teachers also recognize the importance of building on the learning events occurring in students homes and communities However in practice partnerships are not easily established Often teachers are not prepared to effectively reach out to families nor are families and schools prepared to effectively work together There are many constraints in forming home school partnerships and the added challenges of creating partnerships with families of children struggling with literacy development are even more difficult Often teachers and families find themselves on opposite sides facing similar challenges looking for a way to connect Families of children struggling to acquire literacy skills are often faced with many challenges other families never experience For teachers trying to reach out to these families and form partnerships is equally challenging Bridges enable connections to be made between people and ideas and allow passage from one side to another This book describes five principles to guide teachers in working with families of struggling readers With examples from the field tools to put into practice and extensive resources lists teachers will expand their understanding of family engagement This book is an important resource for pre service and in service teachers who are eager to engage more sensitively and effectively with families particularly those whose children have struggled with literacy   Writing Report Card For The Nation And The States, NAEP 1998 ,1999   The Writing Report Card, 1984-88 Arthur N. Applebee,1990 Based on two national assessments of the writing proficiency of representative samples of students in grades 4 8 and 11 conducted during the school years ending in 1984 and 1988 this report assesses the informative persuasive and imaginative writing performance of the nation s students and tracks changes in performance over time The first three chapters of the report describe student performance on the informative persuasive and imaginative writing tasks included in the writing trend assessments based on the results of the primary trait and holistic analyses The fourth chapter summarizes trends in average task accomplishment for the nation and various demographic subpopulations In the fifth chapter trends in students grammar punctuation and spelling are discussed The sixth chapter discusses factors that appear to be related to writing performance such as students instructional experiences and home environment The report concludes that despite some progress on some tasks students writing performance across tasks remains low and has changed little across time The report also finds that the extent to which students at all grade levels value writing use it in their own lives and engage in writing process activities remains quite limited A procedural appendix and an appendix of data are attached RS   Building America's Skilled Technical Workforce National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,National Academy of Engineering,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Policy and Global Affairs,Board on Science Education,Board on Higher Education and Workforce,Board on Science, Technology, and Economic Policy,Committee on the Supply Chain for Middle-Skill Jobs: Education, Training, and Certification Pathways,2017-06-04 Skilled technical occupations defined as occupations that require a high level of knowledge in a technical domain but do not require a bachelor s degree for entry are a key component of the U S economy In response to globalization and advances in science and technology American firms are demanding workers with greater proficiency in literacy and numeracy as well as strong interpersonal technical and problem solving skills However employer surveys and industry and government reports have raised concerns that the nation may not have an adequate supply of skilled technical workers to achieve its competitiveness and economic growth objectives In response to the broader need for policy information and advice Building America s Skilled Technical Workforce examines the coverage effectiveness flexibility and coordination of the policies and various programs that prepare Americans for skilled technical jobs This report provides action oriented recommendations for improving the American system of technical education training and certification
