

posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

CHAPTER 3: THE CONSTITUTION

Article 1: Congress

Article 1 is the longest in the Constitution and describes what Congress may or may not do.

Section 8 is the most important passage in article 1. Its 17 short paragraphs tell Congress what it may do, including the "power to lay and collect taxes," declare war, regulate interstate commerce, coin money, and raise an army. The final paragraph is known as the necessary and proper clause.

Section 9 lists the things Congress may not do.

Habeas corpus means that government cannot hold prisoners without formally charging them with a crime.

CHAPTER 3: THE CONSTITUTION

Article 2: The President

The president must be a natural-born American at least 35 years old who is chosen by electors for a 4-year term.

Each state decides who elects the electors—today the people make the choice in every state.

Section 4 allows for removing a president "on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

Three presidents have faced formal impeachment proceedings, although only one, Richard Nixon, was forced to resign his office.
