Lived Nation as the History of Experiences and Emotions in Finland, 1800-2000 Ville Kivimäki, Sami Suodenjoki, Tanja Vahtikari, 2021-06-07 This open access book uses Finland in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as an empirical case in order to study the emergence shaping and renewal of a nation through histories of experience and emotions It revolves around the following questions What kinds of experiences have engendered national mobilization and feelings of national belonging How have political and societal conflicts turned into new communities of experience and emotion What kinds of experiences have been integrated into or excluded from the national context in different instances How have people internalized or contested the nation as a context for their personal family and minority group experiences In what ways has the nation entered and affected people s intimate spheres of life How have national experiences been transmitted to children in the renewal of the nation This edited collection points to the histories of experience and emotions as a novel way of studying nations and nationalism Building on current debates in nationalism studies it offers a theoretical framework for analyzing the historical construction of lived nations and introduces a number of new methodological approaches to understand the experiences of the nation extending from the investigation of personal reminiscences and music records to the study of dreams and children s drawings

Making Nordic Historiography Pertti Haapala, Marja Jalava, Simon Larsson, 2017-09-01 Is there a Nordic history If so what are its origins its scope and its defining features In this informative volume scholars from all five Nordic nations tackle a notoriously problematic historical concept Whether recounting Foucault s departure from Sweden or tracing the rise of movements such as aristocratic empiricism each contribution takes a deliberately transnational approach that is grounded in careful research yielding rich nuanced perspectives on shifting and contested historical terrain

Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Elise Nykänen, 2024-11-08 Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Case Studies in Finnish Literature opens a new perspective on the thriving area of research on the imagined North by studying emotions in the light of case studies in Finnish literature The volume addresses the cultural history of Arctic hysteria and maps other strange emotions depicted and evoked in literature of the Finnish North The volume comprises seven case studies which range from the works of internationally renowned authors such as Rosa Liksom Emmi It ranta and Tove Jansson to the affectively controversial and provocative writings of Timo K Mukka Marko Tapio and Pentti Linkola Drawing from the study of the imagined North and theories and tools in the study of literature and emotions the analyses show how such moods as melancholia ecstasy or a peculiar sense of November are generated in texts and how literary emotions entangle with the Northern environment they depict By focusing on the imagined North in Finnish modernism and contemporary literature the authors offer original views on experiences of late modernity merging with the changing Northern environment in the age of the Anthropocene

The Finnish Civil War 1918, 2014-08-14 The Finnish Civil War 1918 offers a rich account of the history and memory of the short conflict between socialist Reds and non socialist Whites in the winter and spring of 1918 It also traces the legacy of the bloody war in Finnish society until today The volume brings together established scholarship of political and social history with newer approaches stemming from the cultural history of war memory studies gender studies history of emotions psychohistory and oral history The contributors provide readers with a solid discussion of the Civil War within its international and national frameworks Among themes discussed are violence and terror enemy images Finnish irredentist campaigns in Soviet Karelia and the complex memory of the conflict Besides a historical narrative the volume discusses the current state of historiography of the Finnish Civil War Contributors are Anders Ahlbäck Pertti Haapala Marianne Junila Tiina Kinnunen Tiina Lintunen Aapo Roselius Tauno Saarela Juha Siltala Tuomas Tepora and Marko Tikka

Nodes of Contemporary Finnish Literature Leena Kirstinä, 2012-06-13 This book examines phenomena from Finnish and Finnish Swedish literature written in the years between the 1980s and the first decade of the new millennium Its objective is to study this interesting era of literary history in Finland and to sketch some possible directions for future development by identifying literary turning points which have already occurred

Europe - The Nordic Countries, 2025-02-10 Encountering the Past in Nature Timo Myllyntaus, Mikko Saikku, 2001 Annotation Six essays by Finnish scholars which accounts for some of the notes being in Finnish discuss the new science of environmental history issues and case studies of change over time in forested Northern Hemisphere zones due to natural and human forces and Western conceptions of wilderness The editors are with the U of Helsinki whose press first published the book in 1999 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

National Union Catalog, 1982 Includes entries for maps and atlases Terrains of Imagination in Contemporary Finnish Literature Sarianna Kankkunen, 2024-12-24 This study examines experienced space in Maarit Verronen s works of prose fiction The study aligns itself with the contemporary approach often referred to as spatial literary studies a movement connected to the spatial turn within the humanities Theoretically the study draws on multiple fields of spatial studies from semiotics of space to critical theory and poststructuralism By providing a categorization on different approaches within spatial literary studies the study promotes literary studies that utilize spatial theory and explores how spatial concepts can be effectively used as tools for close reading Since the study aims to provide a longitudinal section of Verronen s oeuvre the selected material spans the author s early works from the 1990s to the late 2000s The corpus involves six novels and two short stories The analysis begins with the fantastic realms of Verronen s early career proceeds to consider wilderness and wild spaces turns to visions of dystopic futures and concludes in the narratives of homecoming and homesteading The study shows that Verronen s fantasy draws its allegorical potential from the juxtaposition of spatialized binary semantic oppositions By analyzing Verronen s dystopian novels the study unravels the spatial nature of the genre and the critical potential it encompasses Verronen s narratives on wilderness are approached through the notion of spatial practices and in the context of alienation and postpastoralism Finally the analysis on the literary homes and the acts of homesteading in Verronen s novels foregrounds the open connected and inclusive nature of the contemporary notion of home and new forms of attachment to place both of which are under an active debate in spatial literary studies By bringing together spatial literary studies and Verronen s works this research adds to the study of Finnish literature and contemporary literature s emphasis on space spatiality and environmental issues Moreover the study contributes to the knowledge on the genres of fantasy and dystopia as well as to the study of classic literary tropes and their contemporary manifestations As the study contextualizes Verronen s works within Nordic and European literatures it draws attention to the thematic and stylistic connections that link her writing to broader literary trends and traditions McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia of World Drama
