Working Papers on Comparative Legislative Studies II Lawrence D. Longley, Attila Ágh, 1997 Journal of the Institution of Nuclear Engineers Institution of Nuclear Engineers (Great Britain), 1971 South Asian Cultures of the Bomb Itty Abraham, 2009-03-26 Since their founding as independent nations nuclear issues have been key elements of nationalism and the public sphere in both India and Pakistan Yet the relationship between nuclear arms and civil society in the region is seldom taken into account in conventional security studies These original and provocative essays examine the political and ideological components of national drives to possess and test nuclear weapons Equal coverage for comparable issues in each country frames the volume as a genuine dialogue across this contested boundary A Guide to Careers in Physical Anthropology Alan S. Ryan, 2001-12-30 The field of physical anthropology deals with issues that everyone thinks about and cares about our origins our evolutionary history and why we look and act the way we do The field has benefited greatly by increased attention from the media from popular books and from several television series There is a multitude of topics considered by physical anthropologists including human and primate origins primate societies growth and development genetics forensic science and nutrition Most physical anthropology graduate students have traditionally aspired to research and or teaching careers at a university However during the last decade there has been an increased interest in non traditional careers outside the ivory tower primarily because the number of new physical anthropology Ph D s exceeds the number of jobs available in anthropology departments Because physical anthropology encompasses a variety of research interests students are broadly trained and have a wealth of talents and skills that make them competitive for non academic careers However pursuing opportunities outside the academy requires thoughtful planning and training This collection serves as a reference for students contemplating a career in physical anthropology within or outside the academy Several rewarding career paths that physical anthropologists have chosen are described Students will understand how anthropological theory methods and training are applicable to job responsibilities and career development This book will also help departments of anthropology design coursework and training programs that will make their students more competitive In sum the future of anthropology seems promising given the discipline s broad scope and concern for issues faced by contemporary society and physical anthropologists will be playing an increased role in many arenas Evolving Dynamics of Nuclear South Asia, 2014-03-15 India and Pakistan have both never really accepted each other s existence Their ties have been characterised by a lingering hostility and a pronounced qualitative and quantitative military imbalance in favour of India Additionally India took the lead in developing nuclear weapons while Pakistan only seriously embarked on this endeavour after India had already conducted its peaceful nuclear explosion in 1974 Having lost half of their country in 1971 and realising that they could never really hope to match India in conventional military might Pakistan embarked on nuclear weapons development in the early 1970s more as a necessity rather than as a need Despite adopting the more difficult route of uranium enrichment Pakistan proved virtually unstoppable While China provided some assistance to Pakistan the United States maintained a marked ambivalence towards her quest for nuclear weapons it sometimes applied sanctions against Pakistan while at other times it opted to ignore what was happening by turning a blind eye The weaponisation of their nuclear capability in 1998 led India and Pakistan to venture into the realm of doctrinal rethinking Commencing with a revision of the conventional military doctrines this led to India publishing its draft nuclear doctrine whereas Pakistan preferred ambiguity The essential consideration herein was on how the conventional military thinking of both the countries has been influenced by the availability of nuclear weapons in their respective inventories Along with this process of doctrinal evolution both countries were required to establish viable and internationally acceptable nuclear weapon control systems The doctrinal evolution was responsible for inducing several systemic changes in their armed forces and their entire military system had to undergo significant changes Simultaneously these led to a fresh assessment of the comparative nuclear military potential of the two countries and how this could possibly be employed in a future conflict

Journal Institution of Nuclear Engineers (Great Britain),1971      Energy Research Abstracts ,1982-02      Science Review ,1970      The Making of the Global Nuclear Order in the 1970s David Holloway, Leopoldo Nuti,2020-12-17 This collection of essays offers a fresh look at the 1970s the crucial decade when the nuclear non proliferation regime took shape Exploring a broad array of newly declassified archival sources from different countries across the globe and moving freely across methodological and national barriers historians from Europe North and South America Asia and Africa discuss the making of the global nuclear order from truly international and transnational perspectives The result is a fascinating and innovative volume which will remain an essential reference for historians of the nuclear age of the cold war and more generally of the evolution of the international system in the second half of the twentieth century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The International History Review      Pakistan Affairs ,1980      Resources in Education ,1995-06      Geonews ,1972      Physics in Developing Countries ,2006      Proceedings Asia's Premier ICQC'96 ,1996 Papers read at the second International Convention on Quality Control held in Karachi 1996      INIS Atomindex ,1988      Foreign Affairs Pakistan ,2001      Transdex Index ,1994 An index to translations issued by the United States Joint Publications Research Service JPRS      Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1986      CAAUST ,1966      The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,2004
