

TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD: CHAPTER 4 SUMMARY

- The school year was not the best for Scout. She is far above the curriculum and spends most of her days being frustrated.
- One day she passes the Radley house and sees tinfoil sticking out of the knothole of one of the trees. She reaches in and finds gum. She tells Jem and he tells her to spit the gum out.
- On the last day of school they find two "Indian head" pennies in the hole.
- Dill comes back to Maycomb in the summer. The kids start their games up again – and they soon begin playing a game called "Boo Radley" where they act out the Radley incidents.
- Atticus catches them and asks if their game has to do with the Radley's. Jem denies it so they are not sure if playing this game is a good idea.

About the Novel: To Kill a Mockingbird is a Pulitzer Prize-winning story about a young girl and her family living in Maycomb, Alabama, during the Depression. Six-year-old Scout Finch lives with her older brother Jem and lawyer father Atticus. Scout and Jem befriend a boy named Dill who stays with his aunt each summer. The three children become fascinated with their neighbor Boo Radley, who stays hidden in his home. One summer, Atticus is appointed by the court to defend a black man named Tom Robinson, who is accused of raping a young white woman. Atticus receives much disapproval from the townspeople, which leads to Scout, Jem, and Dill saving their father and Tom from an angry mob.

Searching for New Frontiers Rick Worland, 2018-04-30 Searching For New Frontiers offers film students and general readers a survey of popular movies of the 1960s. The author explores the most important modes of filmmaking in times that were at once hopeful, exhilarating, and daunting. The text combines discussion of American social and political history and Hollywood industry changes with analysis of some of the era's most expressive movies. The book covers significant genres and evolving thematic trends, highlighting a variety of movies that confronted the era's major social issues.

It notes the stylistic confluence and exchanges between three forms the traditional studio movie based on the combination of stars and genres low budget exploitation movies and the international art cinema As the author reveals this complex period of American filmmaking was neither random nor the product of unique talents working in a vacuum The filmmakers met head on with an evolving American social conscience to create a Hollywood cinema of an era defined by events such as the
