Academic Profiling Gilda L. Ochoa,2013-10-01 Today the achievement gap is hotly debated among pundits politicians and educators In particular this conversation often focuses on the two fastest growing demographic groups in the United States Asian Americans and Latinos In Academic Profiling Gilda L Ochoa addresses this so called gap by going directly to the source At one California public high school where the controversy is lived every day Ochoa turns to the students teachers and parents to learn about the very real disparities in opportunity status treatment and assumptions that lead to more than just gaps in achievement In candid and at times heart wrenching detail the students tell stories of encouragement and neglect on their paths to graduation Separated by unequal middle schools and curriculum tracking they are divided by race class and gender While those channeled into an International Baccalaureate Program boast about Socratic classes and stress release sessions students left out of such programs commonly describe uninspired teaching and inaccessible counseling Students unequally labeled encounter differential policing and assumptions based on their abilities disparities compounded by the growth in the private tutoring industry that favors the already economically privileged Despite the entrenched inequality in today s schools Academic Profiling finds hope in the many ways students and teachers are affirming identities creating alternative spaces and fostering critical consciousness When Ochoa shares the results of her research with the high school we see the new possibilities and limits of change Journal of Developmental Education ,2011 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,1991 Genre in Language, Discourse and Cognition Ninke Stukker, Wilbert Spooren, Gerard Steen, 2016-05-10 The study of genre is scattered across research disciplines This volume offers an integrative perspective starting from the assumption that genres are cognitive constructs recognized maintained and employed by members of a given discourse community Its central questions are What does genre knowledge consist of How is it organized in cognition How is it applied in discourse production and interpretation How is it reflected in language use EdPsych Modules Cheryl Cisero Durwin, Marla Reese-Weber, 2024-12-12 EdPsych Modules by Cheryl Cisero Durwin and Marla Reese Weber uses an innovative modular approach integrating case studies drawn from real life classroom situations to address the challenge of effectively connecting theory and research to practice The text features succinct stand alone modules organized into themed units offering the flexibility to tailor content to the specific needs of a course Each unit opens with case studies written for early childhood elementary middle and secondary classrooms showing students the dynamics influencing the future students they plan to teach All 25 modules highlight diversity emphasizing how psychological factors adapt and change based on external influences such as sex gender race language disability status and socioeconomic background The Fifth Edition includes over seven hundred new references across all 25 modules with thorough coverage of the latest developments in education such as artificial intelligence virtual reality the latest neuroscience research and updated coverage of disabilities
