curriculum into a holistic paradigm of decentralized teaching negotiated curriculum personal and cultural narrative as thematic content and the surrounding visual culture and community as text The Maya artist as cultural historian creates paintings as platforms of protest and vehicles of cultural transmission for example genocide witnessed in paintings as historical evidence The mentored artist as ethnographer cedes the traditional ethnographic authority of the colonizing stance to the Indigenous expert as partner and mentor and under this mentorship analyzes its possibilities as decolonizing arts based qualitative inquiry For the teacher Maya world views broaden and integrate arts practice and arts research inaugurating possibilities to transform arts education Eye care situation analysis tool (ECSAT) World Health Organization,2022-05-12

Handbook of Youth Mentoring David L. DuBois,Michael J. Karcher,2005-03-08 The Handbook of Youth Mentoring provides the first scholarly and comprehensive synthesis of current theory research and practice in the field of youth mentoring Editors David L DuBois and Michael J Karcher along with leading experts in the field offer critical and informative analyses of the full spectrum of topics that are essential to advancing our understanding of the principles for effective mentoring of young people The Handbook explores not only mentoring that occurs within formal programs such as Big Brothers Big Sisters but also examines natural mentoring relationships that youth establish with adults outside of such programs

Suffer Less in Life and Work Vincent Dodd,2023-01-31 It can seem we are more divided than ever in many aspects of life and we too often still feel empty while pushing ourselves to keep up Suffer Less in Life and yet life is also an amazing and unfortunately short but powerful journey So yes I do find the good the humor and the laughter as often as I can My answer to the slightly differently worded question is the same but it starts with I am not always happy I have seen inside of us including myself that there is a dark place between alive and dead that we sometimes fall into for a period That place is emptiness loneliness paralyzing fear anxiety depression anger resentment jealousy even blame and many addictions It is my hope that we do not have to stay in that undead but not alive place for long We arrive there when our feelings or perceptions and sometimes the actual reality of our life hit a difficult span of more bad than good This causes the rough to cover more of our spirit than the light of goodness can illuminate In this day and time that unalive place is happening to us all too often We do have valid reasons to feel overwhelmed depressed anxious and to question human and social behaviors But you are alive and unless chronic or severe these painful aware and sensitive human experiences have the potential to enrich our lives It requires a cautious balance As pressures mount this can be difficult but acknowledging how tough and scary it all can be at times is a great healthy start

The Situational Mentor Gill Lane,2016-02-24 Because the mentoring process involves a number of distinct stages a wide range of skills are needed throughout the process and these skills are situational In other words a skilled mentor understands the principles of mentoring but is also able to use appropriate skills according to the person with whom they are working and the stage they have reached in the relationship In addition different types of mentoring programme will demand a skills set particular to each As with many other areas of development a mix of the theoretical and the practical is needed to ensure that programmes and relationships achieve their potential In The Situational Mentor An International Review of Competences and Capabilities in Mentoring David Clutterbuck and Gill Lane have brought together contributions from leading international academics and practitioners to define the key skills involved in mentoring and explore how these may be tailored to ensure a successful outcome in all instances We Suffered in Silence Velva B. Holt, 2008-05 Dick had Good looks and Charisma How could his parishioners know or believe that behind the Parsonage door their beloved Pastor hid the Ugly Secret of deception His emotional battering stripped his wife Carol of her Self Worth Identity and Respect His family Suffered in Silence while hiding ever Darkening Spots on his Clerical Collar Even Dick s Employer refused to believe the pleadings of his wife Are You a Pastor s Wife hiding your shame of abuse behind makeup and an artificial smile Does Your Christian Husband use the Bible to Batter you into believing that you are a failure as a Christian and a wife Religious Leaders MUST address the Explosion of domestic violence that hides behind the protected doors of the Parsonage and the Christian home The Church has been Silent and in Denial too long Robert Coombs MA In his Chapter The Blameless Man suggests ways in which Pastors and Christian Men can avoid stress addictive behaviors and keep from falling into the Woman Trap He also recommends that the Church and Religious Organizations require accountability for their members and employees who are physically and emotionally abusive Mable Dunbar Ph D in her Chapter The Power of Emotional Healing shows that A Broken Woman or Man CAN be Repaired You don t need to Suffer In Silence anymore By reading this book you can take the first step to Breaking the Silence No more hiding No more shame You are PRICELESS NOT WORTHLESS For God has not given you the spirit of fear but of Power of Love and of a sound mind 2 Timothy 1 7 Velva B Holt As a pastor s wife she was involved in Women s Ministry and was an accomplished pianist and music teacher As an author she had over 200 Christian Articles and poems published REVISED MAY 2020 How Youth Ministry Can Change Theological Education - If We Let It Kenda Creasy Dean ,Christy Lang Hearlson, 2016 Since 1993 forty nine theological seminaries have created opportunities for high school students to participate in on campus High School Theology Programs HSTPs that invite them to engage in serious biblical and theological study Many of the young people who take part in these programs go on to become pastoral or lay leaders in their churches What has made these programs so successful especially given the well documented crisis of faith among young people today In this book thirteen contributors many of whom have created or led one of these innovative theology programs investigate answers to this question They examine the pedagogical practices the HSTPs have in common and explore how they are contributing to the leadership of the church They then show how the lessons gleaned from these successful programs can help churches denominations and seminaries reimagine both theological education and youth ministry Coaching and Mentoring for Work-Life Balance Julie Haddock-Millar, Eliot Tom, 2019-07-25 The coaching and mentoring profession is facing a major challenge helping clients cope effectively with life s complexities and conflicting demands in a rapidly changing environment Conversations around work life balance need to address not only the interconnectedness of work leisure home and social life but also the fact that these elements are in flux and require continuous rebalancing This book is a practical and evidence based resource to help coaches and mentors in supporting clients to achieve greater work life balance Written by an experienced academic practitioner team this book provides coaches and mentors with a way of addressing work life tensions with their clients It is grounded in research and practice and offers a wide range of tools and techniques which are supported with real life case studies illustrating how they can be employed On top of this readers are also supported with reflective questions to enhance understanding and a series of downloadable worksheets for practical use Coaching and Mentoring for Work Life Balance is essential reading for professional coaches and mentors who are helping their clients to develop personal resilience and will also be a valuable resource for students in postgraduate coaching and mentoring courses The authors present some of the latest thinking on this topic underpinned by their own research and model for work life balance making the book indispensable to all those engaged in leadership coaching mentoring and supervision
