The Frith Prescribing Guidelines

for People with Intellectual Disability Sabyasachi Bhaumik, Satheesh Kumar Gangadharan, David Branford, Mary Barrett, 2015-09-11 The Frith Prescribing Guidelines for People with Intellectual Disability provides comprehensive guidance on prescribing for patients with intellectual disability as well as general information on the clinical care of this important population. The guidelines have been conceived and developed by clinicians working in intellectual disability services. They are based on both the latest evidence and expert opinion to provide a consensus approach to prescribing as part of a holistic package of care and include numerous case examples and scenarios. New to this third edition is improved coverage of children and the role of primary care teams. The Frith Prescribing Guidelines for People with Intellectual Disability remains a practical guide for busy clinicians and a valuable reference for all primary and secondary health care professionals caring for people with intellectual disability.

The Case Manager's Handbook Catherine M. Mullahy, 2016-05-23 Written by renowned author Catherine M. Mullahy, The Case Manager's Handbook Sixth Edition is an indispensable guide for case managers. Presented in an accessible and conversational style, this practical resource helps case managers learn the fundamentals, study for the Certified Case Manager (CCM) exam, and advance their careers after the exam. Completely updated and enhanced with information on the latest developments affecting case management, it reflects the rapidly changing healthcare landscape, including the significant effects of the Affordable Care Act (ACA). The Sixth Edition includes new chapters on pediatric case management, workers' compensation, case management key factors driving today's healthcare system, the case manager's role in the era of value-based health care, case management and healthcare provider strategies for managing the high-risk or high-cost patient, and transformative healthcare approaches for the millennial generation.

Handbook of Rehabilitation in Older Adults Robert J. Gatchel, Izabela Z. Schultz, Christopher T. Ray, 2019-02-27 This book discusses the state of the research and cutting-edge practice with regard to chronic illnesses and rehabilitation in older adults. It emphasizes biopsychosocial and culturally appropriate rehabilitation approaches to reduce the degree of disability and maximize independence in the activities of daily living among the burgeoning aging population. Organized in four sections: Introduction and Overview; Major Illnesses and Problems in Aging Populations; Evaluation of Functional Rehabilitation Approaches for Aging Populations; and Future Clinical Research Needs, the book includes chapters on the graying of the West with implications for increased chronic illnesses and disabilities; a review of biopsychosocial rehabilitation approaches; important aging issues such as slips and falls, musculoskeletal pain, chronic disabling conditions such as cancer and cardiovascular disease; and work-related factors to maintain work engagement in older workers. The US Census Bureau projects that by the year 2030, about 20% of the US population will be 65 or older, contributing to the increased concern about healthcare and rehabilitation issues among older adults. This work will be of interest to healthcare, rehabilitation, vocational human resource, and disability management professionals, policy makers, as well as researchers in areas of aging, gerontology, chronic illness, disability, rehabilitation, social work, medicine, and psychology.
