Paint The White House Black:

Paint the White House Black Michael P. Jeffries, 2013-02-13 Barack Obama's election as the first black president in American history forced a reconsideration of racial reality and possibility. It also incited an outpouring of discussion and analysis of Obama's personal and political exploits. Paint the White House Black fills a significant void in Obama-themed debate, shifting the emphasis from the details of Obama's political career to an understanding of how race works in America. In this groundbreaking book, race rather than Obama is the central focus. Michael P. Jeffries approaches Obama's election and administration as common cultural ground for thinking about race. He uncovers contemporary stereotypes and anxieties by examining historically rooted conceptions of race and nationhood, discourses of biracialism and Obama's mixed heritage, the purported emergence of a post-racial society, and popular symbols of Michelle Obama as a modern black woman. In so doing, Jeffries casts new light on how we think about race and enables us to see how race in turn operates within our daily lives. Race is a difficult concept to grasp with outbursts and silences that disguise its relationships with a host of other phenomena. Using Barack Obama as its point of departure, Paint the White House Black boldly aims to understand race by tracing the web of interactions that bind it to other social and historical forces.

The Methuen Drama Book of Post-Black Plays Eisa Davis, Christina Anderson, Marcus Gardley, Robert O'Hara, J. Nicole Brooks, Nikkole Salter, Danai Gurira, Diana Son, Young Jean Lee, 2013-12-02 Post-black refers to an emerging trend within black arts to find new and multiple expressions of blackness unburdened by the social and cultural expectations of blackness of the past and moving beyond the conventional binary of black and white. Reflecting this multiplicity of perspectives, the plays in this collection explode the traditional ways of representing black families on the American stage and create new means to consider the interplay of race with questions of class, gender, and sexuality. They engage and critique current definitions of black and African American identity as well as previous limitations placed on what constitutes blackness and black theatre. Written by the emerging stars of American theatre such as Eisa Davis and Marcus Gardley, the plays explore themes as varied as family and individuality, alienation and gentrification, and reconciliation and belonging. They demonstrate a wide range of formal and structural innovations for the American theatre and reflect the important ways in which contemporary playwrights are expanding the American dramatic canon with new and diverse means of representation. Edited by two leading US scholars in black drama, Harry J. Elam Jr. of Stanford and Douglas A. Jones Jr. of Princeton, this cutting-edge anthology gathers together some of the most exciting new American plays, selected by a rigorous academic backbone and explored in depth by supporting critical material.

Revealing Male Bodies Nancy Tuana, 2002-05-06 Revealing Male Bodies is the first scholarly collection to directly confront male lived experience. There has been an explosion of work in men's studies, masculinity issues, and male sexuality, in addition to a growing literature exploring female embodiment. Missing from the current literature, however, is a sustained analysis of the phenomenology of male gendered bodies. Revealing Male Bodies addresses this omission by examining how male bodies are physically and experientially constituted by the economic theoretical and social practices in which men are immersed Contributors include Susan Bordo William Cowling Terry Goldie Maurice Hamington Don Ihde Greg Johnson Bjrn Krondorfer Alphonso Lingis Patrick McGann Paul McIlvenny Terrance MacMullan Jim Perkinson Steven P Schacht Richard Schmitt Nancy Tuana Craig L Wilkins and John Zuern Not in Our Lifetimes Michael C. Preachers of Hate Kenneth R. Timmerman, 2004-11-23 Like no book before it Preachers of Hate uncovers an ancient hatred that threatens the life and livelihood of every American The new anti-Semitism targets not only Jews but Americans specifically and the West in general It targets our values our lifestyle and our freedoms It is the single most important issue we face when trying to make sense of the Arab world Most Americans will be stunned to discover the depth and extent of anti-Semitic hatred in today's Middle East and Europe and that many Muslim leaders are not just encouraging it but spending a great deal of money to spread the lies that spawned the terrorists responsible for the September 11 attack on America In Preachers of Hate bestselling author Kenneth R Timmerman who is not Jewish contends that besides Islam itself the core unifying force in the Muslim world is a virulent strain of anti-Semitism that postulates the existence of a Jewish conspiracy to take over the world. From the pulpits of fiery Muslim clerics to the Arab street and to the highest reaches of government and state sponsored media there is a belief that this thousand year old conspiracy has already taken hold in America and is now especially after the war in Iraq about to do the same in the Middle East and beyond. It is seen as no less than Muslims' historical destiny to prevent such a takeover and to do so by any means possible. To misunderstand the ferocity of that belief is to vastly underestimate the resolve of many Muslims to repel America, Israel and all things Western. Timmerman explores the roots of this hatred, examining its history, the religious sources upon which it draws and how it is being transmitted to young people growing up in Arab societies by their leaders, their teachers and their mosques. He documents how U.S. and European Union money has been used to finance hatred in Palestinian schools. He exposes the double talk of Arab leaders and their supporters in the West. As it so often was throughout history, this new strain of Jew hatred is really about much more than Jews. They get attacked first when the enemies of America can't attack Americans. However, what begins with the Jews never ends with the Jews. Is there a conspiracy between America and the Jews, asks Timmerman. Indeed, there is. A common heritage, a dedication to improving the human condition through compassion and tolerance of differences, a conspiracy of freedom. And that is why they hate us. As with the Jews throughout history, America has been unfairly successful. As have the Jews, Americans have profited from the misery and poverty of others. If you hate Jews, you must also hate America. Such is the simple logic of the anti-Semite. Such increasingly is the logic of the Middle East. It is a message that is reinforced day in and day out by the official government sanctioned Arab media from the streets of Egypt, London, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Paris and Gaza, and in the mosques where impassioned clerics quote verbatim texts like the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a pillar of anti-Semitic hatred that originated in czarist Russia. As America reasserts her role in the Middle East and attempts to bring peace between Jews and Arabs, Preachers of Hate is an essential book that reframes a very complicated issue as a matter of life and death. Food and Media Jonatan Leer, Karen Klitgaard Povlsen, 2016-06-17

Food is everywhere in contemporary mediascapes as witnessed by the increase in cookbooks, food magazines, television, cookery shows, online blogs, recipes, news items and social media posts about food. This mediatization of food means that the media often interplays between food consumption and everyday practices, between private and political matters and between individuals, groups and societies. This volume argues that contemporary food studies need to pay more attention to the significance of media in relation to how we do food. Understanding food media is particularly central to the diverse contemporary social and cultural practices of food where media use plays an increasingly important but also differentiated and differentiating role in both large scale decisions and most people's everyday practices. The contributions in this book offer critical studies of food media discourses and of media users' interpretations, negotiations and uses that construct places and spaces as well as possible identities and everyday practices of sameness or otherness that might form new or renew old
