Cruel Crazy Beautiful World Troy Blacklaws, 2013-03-26 DIV Two characters navigate the post-apartheid South African landscape in this haunting story of the injustice that still simmers below the country's surface. DIV div In Troy Blacklaws's ambitious novel the lives of two African men run parallel exposing the tensions that rumble at South Africa's post-apartheid core. Jerusalem is a young poet and student whose stubborn father will no longer pay for his rambling studies. Half Jewish half Muslim Jerusalem is forced from Cape Town to a distant harbor village by his father who believes a stint selling curios to tourists will right his wandering ways. Meanwhile Jabulani loses his teaching job in Zimbabwe after mocking President Mugabe and must move south to start a new life. But his life across the border is tainted by the harsh truth that racism isn't gone; it's just taken another form. As the two men's lives merge their stories reveal the paradoxes of the South African experience. DIV div div

The Cuckoo's Nest Jagdish Joshi, 2013-08-13 Terror outfits in Asia are looking beyond the 9/11 episode to terrorize the world with nuclear devices. Rogue nuclear scientists involved in smuggling and dissemination of WMD technologies are eager to help Al Qaeda and similar groups in achieving their objectives. Russian mafia groups are arranging sale of nuclear scrap retrieved from ICBM's dismantled under SALT Treaty agreements to whoever is willing to pay in bullion and US Dollars. Indian Intelligence agencies discover a major money laundering operation in Mumbai. A British hydrocarbon specialist working at a major drilling site is kidnapped and taken to Myanmar as hostage. The Tamil Tiger guerillas of Sri Lanka demand the British Government release a Lankan rogue scientist undergoing prison term for smuggling contraband nuclear material in exchange of the hostage in Myanmar. The murder of a senior executive involved in the money laundering operations in Mumbai sends Indian sleuths on tracing money trails to Sri Lanka, Bangkok and Chiang Mai. The daring rescue of a Bangladesh nuclear scientist held captive for three decades and blackmailed to work on a project of WMD's by the ISI exposes the conspiracy to arm Qaeda with nuclear devices.

Protecting Foreign Investment Carlos M. Correa,Nagesh Kumar,2013-07-04 Despite the mounting criticism that globalization is encountering the developed countries continue to lose no opportunity to change the rules of the global economy in their favour regardless of the impact on developing countries and the poor This book examines one of the most important instances of this the rich countries insistence that the WTO not only launch a new round of world trade negotiations but that rules which were supposed to be confined to trade issues now be extended by means of new agreements protecting foreign direct investment What is being proposed would be at the expense of the freedom of developing countries to determine their own policies towards foreign capital in tune with their development policy objectives The two authors of this book have an intimate knowledge of WTO negotiating processes They explain in detail the North's relentless determination to give privileged protection to the overseas investments of its transnational corporations These initiatives have included inter alia the OECD's failed MAI initiative the World Bank sponsored Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency and the WTO's General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS and Agreement on Trade related Investment Measures TRIMS The authors spell out their consequences for developing countries They examine whether there is any real case for a new multilateral framework on investment within the WTO And they propose various options for developing countries to resist what amounts to a new form of Western protectionism including how a development dimension could be incorporated in any new agreement should the member countries of the WTO decide to proceed with negotiations This book provides invaluable information and analysis for diplomats and trade negotiators policy makers and scholars as well as civil society activists concerned with the impact of TNC investments on development

□□□ C. C. Hsieh, 2024-12-05 The Girl in the Text Ann Smith, 2019-07-16 How are girls represented in written and graphic texts and how do these representations inform our understanding of girlhood In this volume contributors examine the girl in the text in order to explore a range of perspectives on girlhood across borders and in relation to their positionality In literary and transactional texts girls are presented as heroes who empower themselves and others with lasting effect as figures of liberating pedagogical practice and educational activism and as catalysts for discussions of the relationship between desire and ethics In these varied chapters a new notion of transnationalism emerges one rooted not only in the process through which borders between nation states become more porous but through which cultural and ethnic imperatives become permeable
