

To Kill a Mockingbird Dialectical Journal

This quarter you will be reading Harper Lee's novel To Kill a Mockingbird as your IRP book. Each week on the block day you will interact with and analyze the text in class, however it is necessary for you to read the novel at home. In order to participate in class discussions and activities it is mandatory that you keep up with the reading. For each weekly reading assignment you need to add at least 2 entries to a dialectical journal within your class notebook. Although I will check each due date to see if you are up-to-date with your entries, the overall grade will not be recorded in Infinite Campus until we have finished reading the novel. If you do not have the journal entries done at the beginning of class on the day they are due you will NOT be able to make them up.

What is a Dialectical Journal?

A Dialectical Journal is a journal in which a reader maintains a written conversation with the text. You should use this journal to:

- Summarize and question the text
- Pose questions about what you have read
- Take notes on details, images, diction, etc.
- Notice patterns
- Write analysis and make connections
- Connect method to purpose, effect, and meaning
- Make choices about evidence
- Document quotes
- Make inferences about characters, symbols, etc.
- Write analysis justifying an assertion

How should I set up my Dialectical Journal?

This is how you will set up each week's entry:

Chapter #: Title goes here (the chapters are not titled, you will make this up)
Text and main ideas	Reactions and details
Quote goes here – you may quote a phrase, sentence, or section of the text. Also include proper parenthetical documentation (Author page)	Your reaction goes here – opinion, question, comment, reaction, etc. This reaction should be real, candid, honest, and school appropriate. Demonstrate insight and analysis!
In this section, record quotes that contain unique examples of author's style, figurative language, thematic elements, character and plot development, etc.

Example:

Chapter 12: Jem is Becoming a Gentleman
Chapter 12, page 115 "This change in Jem had come about in a matter of weeks. Mrs. Dubose was not cold in her grave—Jem had seemed grateful enough for my company when he went to read to her. Overnight, it seemed, Jem had acquired an alien set of values and was trying to impose them on me: several times he went so far as to tell me what to do. After one altercation when Jem bellowed, "It's time you started bein' a girl and acting right!" I burst into tears and fled to Calpurnia."	This passage is important to the characterization of both Jem and Scout. In the beginning of the novel, Jem and Scout are like partners in crime. They play games together with Dill and seem to have strong brother-sister relationship. At this point, Jem is twelve and is about to be a teenager. He is changing and growing up. In this quote, Scout explains her frustration and confusion that her brother is different. While Jem is suddenly concerned about her role as a girl and wants her to "act right," Scout is still very much a tom-boy and does not understand his new "alien" values. This quote signifies that one sibling is growing up while the other struggles to understand it.
