To Live By Yu Hua:

To Live Yu Hua, 2007-12-18 Originally banned in China but later named one of that nation's most influential books a searing novel that portrays one man's transformation from the spoiled son of a landlord to a kindhearted peasant A work of astounding emotional power Dai Sijie author of Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress From the author of Brothers and China in Ten Words this celebrated contemporary classic of Chinese literature was also adapted for film by Zhang Yimou After squandering his family's fortune in gambling dens and brothels the young deeply penitent Fugui settles down to do the honest work of a farmer Forced by the Nationalist Army to leave behind his family he witnesses the horrors and privations of the Civil War only to return years later to face a string of hardships brought on by the ravages of the Cultural Revolution Left with an ox as the companion of his final years Fugui stands as a model of gritty authenticity buoyed by his appreciation for life in this narrative of humbling power Ethics After Idealism Rey Chow, 1998-01-22 Recognizing the necessity for a critique of idealism constitutes for Chow an ethics in the postcolonial postmodern age In particular she uses ethics to designate the act of making decisions in this context decisions of reading that may not immediately conform with prevalent social mores of idealizing our others but that nonetheless enables such others to emerge in their full complexities The New York Times Guide to the Best 1,000 Movies Ever Made Peter M. Nichols, 2004-02-21 From the film critics of The New York Times come these uncut original reviews of the most popular and influential movies ever made from the Talkies to blockbuster megahits like Chicago and The Wizard of Oz from timeless classics like Casablanca and Notorious to beloved foreign films by Truffaut and Kurosawa Fellini and Almodovar The reviews eloquent incisive and intuitive reflect Hollywood history at its best must have reading for movie lovers or Students In addition this essential volume includes Full cast and production credits for every movie The 10 Best lists for every year from 1931 to the present An index of films by genre and an index of foreign films by country of origin This edition is thoroughly updated to include all the important movies of the past several years as well as a new introduction by A Times film critic A O Scott China in Ten Words Yu Hua, 2011-11-08 From one of China's most acclaimed writers his first work of nonfiction to appear in English a unique intimate look at the Chinese experience over the last several decades told through personal stories and astute analysis that sharply illuminate the country's meteoric economic and social transformation Framed by ten phrases common in the Chinese vernacular people leader reading writing Lu Xun one of the most influential Chinese writers of the twentieth century disparity revolution grassroots copycat and bamboozle China in Ten Words reveals as never before the world's most populous yet oft misunderstood nation In Disparity for example Yu Hua illustrates the mind boggling economic gaps that separate citizens of the country In Copycat he depicts the escalating trend of piracy and imitation as a creative new form of revolutionary action And in Bamboozle he describes the increasingly brazen practices of trickery fraud and chicanery that are he suggests becoming a way of life at every level of society Characterized by Yu Hua's trademark wit insight and courage China in Ten

Words is a refreshingly candid vision of the Chinese miracle and all its consequences from the singularly invaluable perspective of a writer living in China today

Masculinity Besieged? Xueping Zhong, 2000 A feminist psychoanalytic account of changing conceptions of men and masculinity as seen in recent Chinese literature

Contemporary Chinese Novels in Translation since 1978 Yun Wu, 2024-10-14 This book aims to complement the traditional focus of translation studies which has primarily centered on translating English into other languages It presents a comprehensive analysis of the reverse translation trajectory exploring the movement of Chinese literature into the core English literary domain The book aims to explore the ideological and sociological dynamics that underlie the translation of contemporary Chinese novels This is achieved through an examination of the translation selection process translation paratexts and the roles of translation agents Case studies are employed to illustrate specific linguistic literary and cultural challenges within translation It dissects the cultural and literary implications of translating genres such as women's writing science fiction and Internet literature The argument presented is that the translation of peripheral literature is indispensable in shaping global literature Beyond its literary implications the book identifies the political significance inherent in such reverse translation endeavors It suggests that the translation of Chinese literature holds notable political interest for the Chinese government which aims to reshape China's image and bolster the nation's soft power through literary translation This work will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies comparative literature and Chinese studies

The Heart of Time Sabina Knight, 2020-03-23 By examining how narrative strategies reinforce or contest deterministic paradigms this work describes modern Chinese fiction's unique contribution to ethical and literary debates over the possibility for meaningful moral action How does Chinese fiction express the desire for freedom as well as fears of attendant responsibilities and abuses How does it depict struggles for and against freedom How do the texts allow for or deny the possibility of freedom and agency By analyzing discourses of agency and fatalism and the ethical import of narrative structures the author explores how representations of determinism and moral responsibility changed over the twentieth century She links these changes to representations of time and to enduring commitments to human heartedness and social justice Although Chinese fiction may contain some of the most disconsolate pages in the twentieth century's long literature of disenchantment it also bespeaks Knight argues a passion for freedom and moral responsibility Responding to ongoing conflicts between the claims of modernity and the resources of past traditions these stories and novels are often dominated by challenges to human agency Yet read with sensitivity to traditional Chinese conceptions of moral experience their testimony to both the promises of freedom and the failure of such promises opens new perspectives on moral agency

Critical Essays on William Faulkner Robert W. Hamblin, 2022-08-24 Critical Essays on William Faulkner compiles scholarship by noted Faulkner studies scholar Robert W Hamblin Ranging from 1980 to 2020 the twenty one essays present a variety of approaches to Faulkner's work While acknowledging Faulkner as the quintessential southern writer particularly in his treatment of race the essays examine his work in relation to American and even international contexts The volume includes discussions of Faulkner's techniques and the psychological underpinnings of both the origin and the form of his art explores how his writing is a means of saying no to death examines the intertextual linkages of his fiction with that of other writers like Shakespeare Twain Steinbeck Warren and Salinger treats Faulkner's use of myth and his fondness for the initiation motif and argues that Faulkner's film work in Hollywood is much better and of far greater value than most scholars have acknowledged Taken as a whole Hamblin's essays suggest that Faulkner's overarching themes relate to time and consequent change The history of Faulkner's Yoknapatawpha stretches from the arrival of the white settlers on the Mississippi frontier in the early 1800s to the beginnings of the civil rights movement in the 1940s Caught in this world of continual change that produces a great degree of uncertainty and ambivalence the Faulkner character and reader must weigh the traditions of the past with the demands of the present and the future As Faulkner acknowledges this process of discovery and growth is a difficult and sometimes painful one yet as Hamblin attests to engage in that quest is to

Crossing Between Tradition and Modernity: Essays in Commemoration of Milena Doležalová-Velingerová (1932-2012) Kirk A. Denton, 2017-02-01

Kniha Crossing Between Tradition and Modernity představuje soubor třinácti esejů k uctívání památky Mileny Doležalové Velingerové 1932-2012. Lenky Pražské sinologické koly a v známé odbornice na českou literaturu, která zastávala přední místo v západní literární teorii a její následné aplikace v sinologii, Milena Doležalová Velingerová byla jedním z těch, kteří v českých pracovištích psali se stejnou erudicí a stejnou kvalitou, jak o moderní, tak i o klasické literatuře. Eseye následují po kladu Mileny Doležalové Velingerové v tom smyslu, že se zabývají širokým spektrem historických období literárního charakteru a tematikou od Tangových cestovatelských esejů a po kulturní identitu postkoloniálního Hong Kongu. Eseye jsou strukturovány do dvou částí: Language Structure and Genre a Identities and Self Representations. Jsou motivovány soustředěním záměrem o problematiku jazyka, narativní struktury a komplexní povahy literárního vztahu, který byly středobodem práce Mileny Doležalové Velingerové.

Ideology and Form in Yan Lianke's Fiction Haiyan Xie, 2023-02-10

Xie analyzes three novels by the international award-winning Chinese writer Yan Lianke and investigates how his signature mythorealist form produces textual meanings that subvert the totalizing reality prescribed by literary realism. The term mythorealism, which Yan coined to describe his own writing style, refers to a set of literary devices that incorporate both Chinese and Western literary elements while remaining primarily grounded in Chinese folk culture and literary tradition. In his use of mythorealism, carrying a burden of social critique that cannot allow itself to become political, Yan transcends the temporality and provincality of immediate social events and transforms his potential socio-political commentaries into more diversified concerns for humanity, existential issues, and spiritual crisis. Xie identifies three modes of mythorealist narrative exemplified in Yan's three novels: the minjian folk mode in Dream of Ding Village, the allusive mode in Ballad Hymn Ode, and the enigmatic mode in The Four Books. By positioning itself against an ambiguous articulation of social determinants of historical events that would perhaps be more straightforward in a purely realist text, each mode of mythorealism moves its narrative from the overt politicality of the subject matter to the existential riddle of negotiating an alternative reality. A groundbreaking study of one of contemporary China's most important authors that will be of great value to scholars and students of Chinese literature.
