Paolo Mantegazza (1831-1910) was probably the most eclectic figure in late nineteenth-century Italian culture. A prolific writer, Mantegazza can be seen as a forerunner of what has come to be known as cultural studies on account of his interdisciplinary approach, his passionate blend of scientific and literary elements in his writings, and his ability to transcend the boundaries between high and low culture. Though extremely popular during his lifetime, both in Italy and abroad, Mantegazza's works have not been made available in a significant English language compilation. López,2011-10 This book argues that the transnationalism that is central to Chicano identity originated in the global postcolonial moment at the turn of the nineteenth century rather than as an effect of contemporary economic conditions which began in the mid nineteenth century and primarily affected the laboring classes The Spanish empire then began to implode and colonists in the new world debated the national contours of the viceroyalties This is where the author locates the origins of Chicano literature which is now and always has been postnational encompassing the wealthy the poor the white and the mestizo The Living Church ,1958
