From its early days as a rough and tumble cow town on the Chisholm Trail, the city first achieved dining sophistication through the efforts of the Thursday Afternoon Cooking Club, now the oldest such club in the United States. Steakhouses in the north end invented and popularized what some consider the city's signature dish, garlic salad. Waves of immigrants from three parts of the world—Mexico, Lebanon, and Vietnam—stamped the dining habits of residents with dishes such as piratas, shawarma, and Saigon. Oriental Restaurant's famous No. 49. Author Joe Stumpe tells these stories and more while providing nearly two hundred prize recipes from restaurants and home cooks.
