Modern Czech Literature: Writing in Times of Political Trauma Andrew M. Drozd,2025-05-20 Modern Czech culture has experienced a series of political traumas starting in the 1930s Despite the difficult shifting conditions Czech writers have not

Picturing the Language of Images Laurence Petit, 2014-04-11 Picturing the Language of Images is a collection of thirty three previously unpublished essays that explore the complex and ever evolving interaction between the verbal and the visual The uniqueness of this volume lies in its bringing together scholars from around the world to provide a broad synchronic and diachronic exploration of the relationship between text and image as well as a reflection on the limits of representation through a re thinking of the very acts of reading and viewing While covering a variety of media such as literature painting photography film and comics across time from the 18th century to the 21st century this collection also provides a special focus on the work of particular authors such as A S Byatt W G Sebald and Art Spiegelman      Radical Evil and the

Scarcity of Hope Martin Beck Matušítk, 2008-04-16 Matust k presents a bold new way of dealing with one of humanity s most intractable problems      Prague Palimpsest Alfred Thomas, 2010-10-15 A city of immense literary mystique Prague has inspired writers across the centuries with its beauty cosmopolitanism and tragic history Envisioning the ancient city in central Europe as a multilayered text or palimpsest that has been constantly revised and rewritten from the medieval and Renaissance chroniclers who legitimized the city s foundational origins to the modernists of the early twentieth century who established its reputation as the new capital of the avant garde Alfred Thomas argues that Prague has become a paradoxical site of inscription and effacement of memory and forgetting a utopian link to the prewar and pre Holocaust European past and a dystopia of totalitarian amnesia Considering a wide range of writers including the city s most famous son Franz Kafka

Prague Palimpsest reassesses the work of poets and novelists such as Bohumil Hrabal Milan Kundera Gustav Meyrink Jan Neruda V t zslav Nezval and Rainer Maria Rilke and engages with other famous authors who wrote Prague including Guillaume Apollinaire Ingeborg Bachmann Albert Camus Paul Celan and W G Sebald The result is a comparative interdisciplinary study that helps to explain why Prague more than any other major European city has haunted the cultural and political imagination of the West Am I Alone Here? Peter Orner, 2016-10-25 This National Book Critics Circle Award is an entrancing attempt to catch what falls between the irreducibly personal messy even embarrassing ways reading and living bleed into each other which neither literary criticism nor autobiography ever quite acknowledges The New York Times Stories both my own and those I ve taken to heart make up whoever it is that I ve become Peter Orner writes in this collection of essays about reading writing and living Orner reads and writes everywhere he finds himself a hospital cafeteria a coffee shop in Albania or a crowded bus in Haiti The result is a book of unlearned meditations that stumbles into memoir Among the many writers Orner addresses are Isaac Babel and Zora Neale Hurston both of whom told their truths and were silenced Franz Kafka who professed loneliness but craved connection Robert Walser who spent the last twenty three years of his life in a Swiss insane asylum working at being crazy and Juan Rulfo who practiced the difficult art of silence Virginia Woolf Eudora Welty Yasunari Kawabata Saul Bellow Mavis Gallant John Edgar Wideman William Trevor and Va clav Havel make appearances as well as the poet Herbert Morris about whom almost nothing is known An elegy for an eccentric late father and the end of a marriage Am I Alone Here is also a celebration of the possibility of renewal At once personal and panoramic this book will inspire readers to return to the essential stories of their own lives An Introduction to Twentieth-Century Czech Fiction Robert Porter, 2001-01-01 This is an appraisal of some of the best Czech fiction of the 20th century After a brief introduction there are chapters on Hasek Hrabal Skorecky Pavel Klima and a final chapter on Hodrova Viewegh and Topol Censorship, Indirect Translations and Non-translation Jaroslav Spirk, 2014-09-18 Indirect Translations and Non Translation The Fateful Adventures of Czech Literature in 20th century Portugal a pioneering study of the destiny of Czech and Slovak literature in 20th century Portugal is a gripping read for anyone seeking to look into intercultural exchanges in Europe beyond the so called dominant or central cultures Concentrating on relations between two medium sized lingua and socio cultures via translation this book discusses and thoroughly investigates indirect translations and the resulting phenomenon of indirect reception the role of paratexts in evading censorship surprising non translation and by extension the impact of political ideology on the translation of literature In drawing on the work of Ji Lev and Anton Popovi two outstanding Czechoslovak translation theorists this book opens up new avenues of research both theoretically and methodologically As a whole the author paints a much broader picture than might be expected Scholars in areas as diverse as translation studies comparative literature reception studies Czech literature and Portuguese culture will find inspiration in this book By researching translation in two would be totalitarian regimes this monograph ultimately contributes to a better

Just, 2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students
