The Roads of the Roman Empire

Directions: Read the paragraphs and study the map. Then answer the questions that follow.

The famous Roman roads were a vast network of hard-surfaced roads connecting the city of Rome to the farthest reaches of its empire. The stone-paved highways lasted for more than a thousand years, and some sections are still in use today. Author Isaac Asimov claimed that there was no better mode of transportation in the world until the arrival of railroads close to 2,000 years later.

Romans began building roads in 312 B.C. following their first major conquests. The beginning stretch, the Appian Way, trailed 132 miles southeast out of Rome. Thereafter, roadbuilding kept pace with the empire's expansion. Eventually, Roman roads wound 53,000 miles around the Mediterranean and northeastern Atlantic regions.

The roads, constructed by slaves and soldiers, were wide enough for large wagons to pass each other. The principal use of the highways was to move Roman armies from one part of the empire to another. However, citizens were free to use the roads. The Roman statesman Cicero once spoke of moving 56 miles in a cart in just ten hours. However, travelers had to be alert for bandits, as people might simply "disappear" while riding on Roman roads.

Judson Edwards,2008-09 Studying Acts may make readers feel as though they are stepping into a different world a world of miracles a world where God is alive and moving and doing remarkable things How can that world intersect ours How can the old story of people speaking in tongues and raising the dead come alive in a world where no one speaks in tongues and the dead stay dead How can Acts be relevant to our lives and our church In Acts the people who believe in Jesus are filled with the Holy Spirit and set about the business of gathering a community They have to decide how wide their tent is going to be and whom they re going to embrace so they give themselves to the task of breaking down walls Jesus is not just for Jews they decide He s for everyone They launch out spreading the word Paul becomes the focal point of the story and he and his friends move about the ancient world telling all kinds of people the good news about Jesus and his resurrection But there is opposition and Paul is imprisoned He is faithful even there though taking a stand before the government authorities By the time the drama of Acts ends Paul might be confined but his message most assuredly is not The gospel has been unleashed throughout that entire part of the world Gathering a community Breaking down walls Spreading the word Taking a stand These four phrases organize this study of Acts and guide readers through a world alive with God and God s mighty deeds And all of us who have drunk too deeply at the wells of reason and rationality will once again pause to wonder and stand rapt in awe Study Guide, Volume I Brian P.
