of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar,2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N T Wright s model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith The reader receives insights into the movement s narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden s authority and blessings This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith s causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden s perfection The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism

Glenys Godfrey,2016-09-05 Based on the author s experiences of teaching the Word of God on healing and praying with the sick this little book uses a common sense conversational approach to provide answers for those unhappy people who have not yet received the manifestation of their healing by God and have failed to understand why The author explains why the first requirements are a desire to be healed and accepting that sickness does not come from God and how faith and the Word must work together to harness God s power for healing The book explains how to deal with doubt and unbelief as well as many other possible barriers to healing The final message is that in seeking healing through God we must never give up hope The Spirit of Prophecy Annette with the last tens of thousands of years of earth's existence. In Genesis 1:2 the verses written by Moses as author of the Genesis account portray an earth that was veiled in darkness so that its form could not be discerned. The earth at that time was covered with water ice high above the mountain tops so that it gave the appearance of being a dark revolving sphere of frozen water. Table 2. God's spirit is described as hovering over this revolving ball of water and brooding over the sad condition of this dark void planet. God did not create a dark and dismal planet at the beginning because God does not create darkness; in fact, darkness is incompatible with His existence and presence. So what had happened that God viewed Gen 1:2 such a decrepit state of the world? Does scripture attempt to explain this phenomenon, or does the inspired word of God remain silent on this issue? It was first proposed as a theory by the Scotsman Thomas Chalmers in the early 19th century that a gap in time existed between Genesis 1:1 and Genesis 1:2. This gap in time would encompass a ruin/reconstruction theme and the existence of pre-Adamic living beings. Obviously, a huge catastrophic event would have had to occur to produce this decadent state of the world. The gap concept was later popularized by mention in the margin notes of the Scofield Reference Bible.

Beyond Seduction Dave Hunt, 1987. A revolution has begun. Some have hailed this revolution as a much needed purification of the Church. Others say that it will lead to a major schism in Christianity. Since the release of the bestselling THE SEDUCTION OF CHRISTIANITY, Christians everywhere have come face to face with this undeniable truth: we must be certain that what we believe is firmly based upon the teaching of God's Word. The only real remedy for deception and apostasy is a return to a true biblical foundation for Christian living. Hunt's book sounds the call for a return to the sacrificial life that Christ required and the abundant life He offers.
