The National Bibliography of Nigeria, 2013 Christian Churches and Nigeria's Political Economy of Oil and Conflict Nkem Emerald Osuigwe, 2014-09-18 The received account on African evangelical Christianity regarding social witness in a section of Western scholarship is that it is anti development and a political Such an account heavily draws from an instrumentalist and functionalist assessment of such Christianity without recourse to its emic perspective Using the case study method this book presents an ethnographic examination of this functionalist reading by investigating describing and analysing evangelical Christian theological and socio political consciousness within the context of oil and conflict in Nigeria s Niger Delta region Adopting approaches from practical theology congregational studies and anthropology of religion the author challenges such a reading using data gathered from three congregations in the region His discourse revolves around answers to the following four critical questions What are the underlying theological issues and beliefs of Nigerian evangelical Christians within the context of oil and conflict What is their prevalent praxis within the context of Nigeria s political economy of oil and conflict How accurate is the received account that African evangelical and fundamentalist Christianity lacks social responsibility and is a political and anti development What would a contextual political theology for Nigeria s political economy of oil look like The theological issues are varied and the prevalent praxis nuanced which then serves as a veritable critique of the claim that African evangelical Christianity lacks social responsibility due to its preoccupation with soul winning Whereas such Christianity places much emphasis on the winning of souls as an expression of its spirituality it is neither oblivious nor indifferent to its socio political milieu Rather it sees such spirituality as a form of political praxis Some of the trajectories of the spirituality include a theology of conversion a theology of prayer and an ethics of crude oil with Total Freedom as the nomenclature for the specific theological perspective offered for Nigeria s political economy of oil While locating this theological perspective within the taxonomy of Liberation Theology the affinity and dissonance between the two are identified Proceedings of the ... Copyright Office, 1968 Baptist Identities Ian M. Randall, Toivo Pilli, Anthony R. Cross, 2006-08-01 The authors of the papers published here come from a dozen different countries and represent different expressions of Baptist life The papers were delivered at the third International Conference on Baptist Studies held at the International Baptist Theological Seminary in Prague in July 2003 with the theme Baptist Identities Those who gave presentations explored what factors have contributed to the nature of Baptist distinctiveness in different countries and at different times In some cases the authors have written about their own contexts using specific case studies that relate to particular periods whereas in other cases they range more widely covering several countries and or longer periods of time Topics examined in this volume include theological education women in leadership issues of ethnicity Baptist identity and national consciousness and creeds The regional scope of the Baptist stories that are analyzed includes Africa Asia Australia Eastern and Western Europe and North America At a time when there is considerable discussion throughout the world Baptist community about the nature of Baptist identity this collection of papers by significant historians of Baptist life is an important contribution New Nigeria Charles Sylvester Green,1936
