Röder,2012-02-16 Constitutionalism in Islamic Countries Between Upheaval and Continuity offers a comprehensive analysis of the issues associated with the theory and practice of constitutionalism in Islamic countries This collection of essays is written by leading constitutional and comparative law scholars and constitutional practitioners and essays provide readers with an overview of the constitutional developments in countries in the Islamic world an understanding of the potential and actual impact of Islam and Sharia on the notion of modern constitutionalism and insight into the ways in which Western ideals may be reconciled with Islamic tradition

Comparative Health Law and Policy Irehobhude O. Iyioha,Remigius N. Nwabueze,2016-05-23 Health law and policy in Nigeria is an evolving and complex field of law spanning a broad legal landscape and drawn from various sources In addressing and interacting with these sources the volume advances research on health care law and policy in Nigeria and spells the beginning of what may now be formally termed the Nigerian health law and policy legal field The collection provides a comparative analysis of relevant health policies and laws such as reproductive and sexual health policy organ donation and transplantation abortion and assisted conception with those in the United Kingdom United States Canada and South Africa It critically examines the duties and rights of physicians patients health institutions and organizations and government parastatals against the backdrop of increased awareness of rights among patient populations The subjects which are discussed from a legal ethical and policy reform perspective critique current legislation and policies and make suggestions for reform The volume presents a cohesive comparative and comprehensive analysis of the state of health law and policy in Nigeria with those in the US Canada South Africa and the UK As such it provides a valuable comparison between Western and Non Western countries      Gender Justice in Islamic Law Musa Usman Abubakar,2018-06-14 This book seeks to interrogate the classical fiqh formulation on gender and homicide with a view to exploring further the debate on whether the so called gender injustice in Islamic law is a human creation or attributable to the divine sources of the Qur'an and Sunnah The study is in response to the increasing criticism of the Islamic criminal law regime and the accusation that it discriminates on the basis of gender It argues that any attempt to critique a religious question through the lens of traditional Western human rights ideals would be resisted by the vast majority of Muslims An examination of the question and any suggested solutions offered would be much more effective if situated within the system they identify with that is to address the question of gender justice deficit from within the Islamic legal tradition Focusing on Nigeria and Pakistan the book achieves this by drawing on classical fiqh literature contemporary literature legislative sources and relevant case law

Law and Religion in the Commonwealth Renae Barker,Paul Babie,Neil Foster,2022-06-30 This book examines law and religion from the perspective of its case law Each chapter focuses on a specific case from a Commonwealth jurisdiction examining the history and impact of the case both within the originating jurisdiction and its wider global context The book contains chapters from leading and emerging scholars from across the Commonwealth including from the United Kingdom Canada Australia Pakistan Malaysia India and Nigeria The cases are divided into four sections covering Foundational Questions in Law and Religion Freedom of Religion around the Commonwealth Religion and state relations around the Commonwealth Rights Relationships and Religion around the Commonwealth Like religion itself the case law covers a wide spectrum of life This diversity is reflected in the cases covered in this book which include Titular Roman Catholic Archbishop of Kuala Lumpur v Home Minister on the use of the Muslim name for God by non Muslims in Malaysia The Church of the New Faith v Commissioner of Pay roll Tax Vic which determined the meaning of religion in Australia Eweida v UK which clarified the application of Article 9 of the European Convention on Human Rights R v Big M Drug Mart on the individual protections of religious freedom under the Canadian Charter of Rights The book examines how legal disputes involving religion are among the most contested in the courts and shows that in these cases passions run high and the outcomes can have significant consequences for all involved      A Bibliography of Islamic Criminal Law Olaf Köndgen,2021-12-06 In A

Bibliography of Islamic Criminal Law Olaf Köndgen offers the most extensive bibliography on Islamic criminal law ever compiled Drawing on a multitude of sources online and offline A Bibliography of Islamic Criminal Law covers in its thematic section not only the classical crime categories of ud d qi and ta z r but also a large number of newly emerging and related fields In a second section dedicated to countries and eras Köndgen comprehensively covers the historical and modern
