

When my teachers come to school,
They look fresh and cool.
With stacks of books in hand,
They take us through a magic land.
Their words fall like a sun's ray,
Who teaches to make us great one day.
They always have a smile on their face,
And allows us to learn at our own pace
They help us to move in our own way,
And teach us to grow day by day.
Teachers can't always be right,
But, unlike us, they'll never fight.
Teachers have a special place in my heart,
For teaching is the finest form of art.

Previous studies of Karamzin have dealt with his literary career This monograph focuses on the final third of his life on his career at court 1816-26 and on the cultural heritage he left to the Russian Empire As the historian of Russia most widely read by his and later generations his historical interpretations mirrored and helped shape the image Russians had of themselves Professor Black's study of Karamzin is crucial to any examination of Russia's enlightenment conservatism historical writing and national self-consciousness The Ohio Teacher Henry Graham Williams, 1903 American Primary Teacher, 1897
