Not Born a Refugee Woman Maroussia Hajdukowski-Ahmed, Nazilla Khanlou, Helene Moussa, 2008-06-01 Not Born a Refugee Woman is an in depth inquiry into the identity construction of refugee women It challenges and rethinks current identity concepts policies and practices in the context of a globalizing environment and in the increasingly racialized post September 11th context from the perspective of refugee women This collection brings together scholar practitioners from across a wide range of disciplines The authors emphasize refugee women's agency resilience and creativity in the continuum of domestic civil and transnational violence and conflicts whether in flight or in resettlement during their uprooted journey and beyond Through the analysis of local examples and international case studies the authors critically examine gendered and interrelated factors such as location humanitarian aid race cultural norms and current psycho social research that affect the identity and well being of refugee women This volume is destined to a wide audience of scholars students policy makers advocates and service providers interested in new developments and critical practices in domains related to gender and forced migrations

Fantasies of Femininity Jane M. Ussher, 1997 In Fantasies of Femininity Jane Ussher focuses on unraveling the contradictory visions of feminine sexuality the fact that representations of the definition of woman seethe with sexuality yet for centuries women have been condemned for exploring their own sexual desires In her quest for the sources of feminine representation Ussher interviewed dozens of women as well as some men and combed popular media from Seventeen to Cosmopolitan and Dallas to Donahue to identify what shapes women's symbolic images of sex and femininity Ussher argues that women have effectively resisted and subverted these archetypal fantasies of femininity and in the process of so doing reframed the very boundaries of sex In this way she exposes as myth much of what we think we know about woman and about sex

Population Mobility and Infectious Disease Yorghos Apostolopoulos, Sevil Sonmez, 2007-05-06 Population Mobility and Infectious Disease moves beyond traditional behavioral and demographic theories of disease diffusion to focus on larger issues of social ecology and public health With depth rarely seen in the international literature it explores the complex and varied roles of mobile transient and displaced populations in the worldwide spread of airborne waterborne and sexually transmitted infections The book argues that while biomedical events cause disease social forces such as poverty and marginalization magnify them by giving them new opportunities to take hold Population mobility either voluntary or forced brings contact between populations with different disease prevalence rates outbreaks in turn are compounded by inequalities in access to medical care From Katrina to Darfur and from influenza to AIDS an expert panel of health and social scientists bring the socioeconomic context of epidemics into clear focus Historical perspectives on migration development and epidemics Social resources and health barriers among migrant groups The role of mobile labor populations e g migrant workers truckers the military in disease transmission War refugees resettlement health effects on the world scale Natural disasters and climate change their local and global disease impact Leisure travel and health risks from spring break binges to commercial sex tourism Methodological and design issues confronting researchers The politics of prevention ethical concerns in migration related illness The unique scope of this book makes it as timely as the next health crisis and relevant to a gamut of interrelated fields including public and international health epidemiology psychology sociology anthropology human rights and development and planning By expanding concepts examining trends and pinpointing areas for intervention it is a critical resource for the academic research practice and policy sectors

Controversies in ELT Maurice Claypole, 2016 This thought provoking and informative collection of essays covers a broad spectrum of topics including Why the communicative approach is dead and what to do about it How to implement blended learning in day to day English teaching Virtual worlds and why English teachers should get a second life The different roles played by the language teacher The value of translation in language teaching Whether native English speakers really make better teachers Why you should NOT be teaching International English A more effective way to teach Technical English The truth about Superlearning and suggestopaedia The secret to being a good English teacher Teaching the language of sex Also included are chapters on the author's unique insight into the issue of complexity in language teaching as manifested in the correlation between language set theory and fractal mathematics and the consequences for learners and teachers of English

The Idea of Prostitution Sheila Jeffreys, 1997 There are at least two competing views on prostitution prostitution as a legitimate and acceptable form of employment freely chosen by women and men's use of prostitution as a form of degrading the women and causing grave psychological damage In The Idea of Prostitution Sheila Jeffreys explores these sharply contrasting views

Enquiring History: British Society since 1945 Diana Laffin, 2013-04-12 Think more deeply and work more independently at A level History through a carefully thought out enquiry approach from SHP Enquiring History It makes you think The OFSTED report on school history suggests that the current generation of A Level students have been poorly served by exam based textbooks which spoon feed students while failing to enthuse them or develop deeper understandings of studying History The Schools History Project has risen to this challenge with a new series for the next generation Enquiring History is SHP's fresh approach to Advanced Level History that aims To motivate and engage readers To help readers think and gain independence as learners To encourage enquiry and deeper understanding of periods and the people of the past To engage with current scholarship To prepare A Level students for university Key features of each Student book Clear compelling narrative books are designed to be read cover to cover Structured enquiries that explore the core content and issues of each period Feature panels between enquiries provide context overview and extension Full colour illustrations throughout Britain since 1945 This title examines the key social developments in post war Britain from 1945 1990 and places them in their political context It examines how changes in the media and in the lives of women young people and immigrants worked together to transform Britain These are both fascinating yet alien topics for today's A Level students old but not quite yet history potent and controversial but only dimly understood This book sets out to shine a truly historical light on each topic using the vast array of powerful evidence And underlying it all to address the key question Has Britain become a more divided society than it was in 1945 Or is that just a myth fuelled by nostalgia Web based support includes lesson planning tools and guidance for teachers available from the SHP website <http://www.schoolhistoryproject.org.uk> Publishing Books SHP Books ALvlEHS.html eBooks for whole class teaching or individual student reading available from eBook retailers
