Poor Numbers Morten Jerven, 2013-01-24 One of the most urgent challenges in African economic development is to devise a strategy for improving statistical capacity Reliable statistics including estimates of economic growth rates and per capita income are basic to the operation of governments in developing countries and vital to nongovernmental organizations and other entities that provide financial aid to them Rich countries and international financial institutions such as the World Bank allocate their development resources on the basis of such data The paucity of accurate statistics is not merely a technical problem it has a massive impact on the welfare of citizens in developing countries Where do these statistics originate How accurate are they Poor Numbers is the first analysis of the production and use of African economic development statistics Morten Jerven s research shows how the statistical capacities of sub Saharan

African economies have fallen into disarray The numbers substantially misstate the actual state of affairs As a result scarce resources are misapplied Development policy does not deliver the benefits expected Policymakers attempts to improve the lot of the citizenry are frustrated Donors have no accurate sense of the impact of the aid they supply Jerven s findings from sub Saharan Africa have far reaching implications for aid and development policy As Jerven notes the current catchphrase in the development community is evidence based policy and scholars are applying increasingly sophisticated econometric methods but no statistical techniques can substitute for partial and unreliable data Climate Change 2014 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability: Part A: Global and Sectoral Aspects: Volume 1, Global and Sectoral Aspects Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC),2014-12-29 This latest Fifth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC will again form the standard reference for all those concerned with climate change and its consequences including students researchers and policy makers in environmental science meteorology climatology biology ecology atmospheric chemistry and environmental policy Uncovering African Agency Lucy Corkin,2016-02-17 China s engagement in Africa is generally portrayed simply as African countries being exploited for their mineral wealth by a wealthy political and economic superpower Is this always the case Certain African countries have been able to use China s involvement in the region to grow their economies and solicit renewed interest from previously disengaged foreign powers by using their relationship with China to bolster their political capital In this thought provoking and original work Lucy Corkin demonstrates how Angola has been amongst the most successful of African nations in this role The concept of African agency covers a wide range of different countries with very different capabilities and experiences of engaging with China In each individual county there are a myriad of actors all with increasingly discernible agencies Uncovering African Agency Angola s Management of China s Credit Lines casts a fascinating new light on China s involvement with her largest African trading partner and through this shows how different African states and the governmental actors within them are able to exploit the relationship to their best advantage Cyclones in Southern Africa Godwell Nhamo,Kaitano Dube,2021-07-24 The subject of tropical cyclones in Southern Africa also known as hurricanes or typhoons in other regions of the world has been growing over the past few decades However there is still limited literature on foundational and fundamental topics on the matter To this end this book addresses this gap citing some examples from both historic and recent tropical cyclones The book presents meteorological and climatic aspects of tropical cyclones including reviews on forecasting warning message dissemination and public response aspects of early warning systems with a focus on the Tropical Cyclones Idai and Kenneth Fundamentals in disaster risk reduction DRR are also discussed moving from the provisions of the Hyogo Framework for Action 2005 2015 to the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015 2030 Climate change issues are central to the publication as well as the role of information and communication technologies in DRR and management The book also tackles some challenges and opportunities associated with the implementation of regional legal and institutional frameworks on DRR The book comes as part of a series with three volumes The other volumes include Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 1 Interfacing the Catastrophic Impact of Cyclone Idai with SDGs in Zimbabwe and Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 3 Implications for the Sustainable Development Goals To this end this book is suitable as a read for several professionals and disciplines such as tourism and hospitality studies economics sustainable development development studies environmental sciences arts geography life sciences politics planning and public health

Eurozone Dystopia William Mitchell, 2015-05-29 Eurozone Dystopia traces the origin of the Eurozone and shows how the historical Franco German rivalry combined with the growing dominance of neo liberal economic thinking to create a monetary system that was deeply flawed and destined to fail It argues

Economic Statecraft and Foreign Policy Jean-Marc F. Blanchard, Norrin M. Ripsman, 2013-07-18 This book develops a unified theory of economic statecraft to clarify when and how sanctions and incentives can be used effectively to secure meaningful policy concessions High profile applications of economic statecraft have yielded varying degrees of success The mixed record of economic incentives and economic sanctions in many cases raises important questions Under what conditions can states modify the behaviour of other states by offering them tangible economic rewards or by threatening to disrupt existing economic relations To what extent does the success of economic statecraft depend on the magnitude of economic penalties and rewards In order to answer these questions this book develops two analytic models one weighs the threats economic statecraft poses to the Target's Strategic Interests TSI while the other stateness assesses the degree to which the target state is insulated from domestic political pressures that senders attempt to generate or exploit Through a series of carefully crafted case studies including African apartheid and Japanese incentives to obtain the return of the Northern Territories the authors demonstrate how their model can yield important policy insights in regards to contemporary economic sanctions and incentives cases such as Iran and North Korea This book will be of much interest to students of statecraft sanctions diplomacy foreign policy and international security in general Biofuels, Land Grabbing and Food Security in Africa Prosper B. Matondi,Kjell Havnevik,Atakilte Beyene,2011-06-09 The issue of biofuels has already been much debated but the focus to date has largely been on Latin America and deforestation this highly original work breaks fresh ground in looking at the African perspective Most African governments see biofuels as having the potential to increase agricultural productivity and export incomes and thus strengthen their national economies improving energy balances and rural employment At the same time climate change may be addressed through reduction of green house gas emissions There are however a number of uncertainties mounting that challenge this scenario Using cutting edge empirical case studies this knowledge gap is addressed in a variety of chapters examining the effects of large scale biofuel production on African agriculture In particular land grabbing and food security issues are scrutinised both of which have become vital topics in regard to the environmental and developmental governance of African countries A revealing book for anyone wishing to understand the startling impact of biofuels and land grabbing on Africa Inequality around the World Deric Shannon,2025-02-06 A two volume set intended for readers interested in understanding the political and cultural underpinnings of socioeconomic inequality across the globe Inequality around the World examines key drivers and shapers of inequality at the local national and international level The two volume set includes 33 in depth chapters covering such issues as public and private healthcare environmental protection and pollution housing disability women s rights land policies antisemitism sexual orientation and gender diversity race and racism political representation and access to higher education Each chapter compares and contrasts conditions in major countries including the USA Russia India China and Germany as well as in wider regions like the Middle East West Africa Central America and Eastern Europe Scrupulously researched and wide ranging in coverage Inequality around the World provides an in depth survey of socioeconomic inequality in the 21st century in all its many forms imwe imba - the other room Munashe Wadzanai,Anne Schlechters,Thomas F. Andersson,2022-11-01 Munashe is a bright adolescent girl living in Zimbabwe She feels a pressure to leave Zimbabwe and to follow most of her peers to a university or to work in the West However she is not convinced that this is what she really wants Via Thomas an experienced European scientist and manager initiating a technical Start up Hub at her boarding school Munashe comes in contact with Anne Imwe imba the other room is a novel covering the last 2 high school years of Munashe and Anne in letters between the young women as well as from Thomas to Simon his now retired personal and business coach Through the letters Anne and Simon discover unknown and fascinating aspects of the southern African society Especially since Thomas includes stories from Nelson Munashe s grandfather and small holder farmer Based on the stories and hearing about Munashe s activities in more technical projects Anne develops a critical attitude towards both the current Western school system and the effectiveness of traditional Western development or aid projects On the other side Munashe learns that Europe is not the land of milk and honey for everybody Munashe and Anne assisted by Thomas review the so called development work activities in emerging markets and propose a promising approach to economically uplift more rural areas In part 2 the Start up Hub activities are proven to be sustainable and Munashe asks where do we want to go A design is made for a more ideal global society and the issues faced implementing their ideas are discussed The letters in this novel cover a wide spectrum of topics personal struggles and contemplations educational and business practices science and art geopolitics and historical backgrounds change management as well as social developments Each letter is written in an accessible language and underlined with references to allow the reader to explore more Most of all imwe imba wants to create awareness Awareness for the wonderful real life in Africa Awareness that Africa is prosperity Awareness that our younger generation is perfectly able to initiate change That a single person can initiate change That complaining or being upset about various unacceptable global happenings or actions is not enough That a further polarisation and blaming the others doesn't help That we have to do things That we should not fear change but embrace the changes that are needed to come to the necessary improvements

International Handbook on Migration and Economic Development Robert E.B. Lucas, 2014-12-31 This Handbook summarizes the state of thinking and presents new evidence on various links between international migration and economic development with particular reference to lower income countries The connections between trade aid and migration are

Displacement Economies in Africa Amanda Hammar, 2014-05-08 Large scale displacement whether caused by war state related political or development projects different forms of political violence structural crisis or even natural disasters evokes many stereotyped assumptions about those forcibly displaced or emplaced At the same time there is a problematic lack of attention paid to the diversity of actors strategies and practices that reshape the world in the face and chronic aftermath of dramatic moments of violent dislocation In this highly original volume based on empirical case studies from across sub Saharan Africa the authors reveal the paradoxical effects both intended and unexpected that displacement produces and that manifest themselves in displacement economies An important contribution to a topic of growing scholarly and policy interest

Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa Nojiyeza, Innocent Simphiwe, Mtapuri, Oliver, Bazaanah, Prosper, Netshiozwi, Edzisani Ellen, 2022-01-28 Access to water and sanitation remains a critical challenge in various countries in Africa The crisis remains the crisis of governance rather than the physical and economic scarcity In most countries water is realized as a human right and subsidies are provided for the indigent households The tricky issue in rural areas remains an issue of access that is often linked to willingness and ability to pay for the installation and daily consumption The Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa presents practical examples of integrated water resources management IWRM implementation in

African countries It further addresses the contemporary issues of alternative energy as part of climate change mitigation and utilizes case studies to examine how communities adapt to climate change Covering topics such as climate justice ecological governance and political ecology this major reference work is a dynamic resource for government officials sociologists climate scientists activists students and educators of higher education academicians and researchers in the fields of social sciences government developmental studies international relations and political science The Hard Road to Reform Brian Raftopolos,2013-02-17 The defeat of ZANU PF in the 2008 parliamentary election marked the end of one party rule in Zimbabwe The Global Political Agreement signed later that resulted in a Government of National Unity and the former ruling party was for the first time faced with the reality of sharing power The Hard Road to Reform presents a penetrating analysis of developments since the GNU was established reviewing recent political history from a range of perspectives political economic social and historical and featuring the best work of Zimbabwe s young scholars As Brian Raftopolos writes in his introduction the book is an attempt to analyse and assess both the hopes and frustrations of the last four years and to confront the harsh challenges that lie ahead The Regulation of the Legal Profession in Ireland Maeve Hosier,2014-08-17 The Regulation of the Legal Profession in Ireland is a new and insightful exploration of history controversy and reform relating to the Irish legal system During recent legislative debate over a professional reform bill Alan Shatter then the Minister of Justice in Ireland publicly called this study in its earlier form as a dissertation marvellous and stated that it should be compulsory reading for us all He noted that the thesis sets out the history of the legal profession and how it evolved It evolved continually until approximately 1870 and then went into paralysis and nothing has changed since It is extraordinarily curious that people think the world stopped in 1870 Professor Laurent Pech formerly of the School of Law at NUI Galway and now Head of the Law Department at Middlesex University London has stated that this study makes a decisive contribution to the on going scholarly and policy debates on this issue by evaluating the present regulatory framework and offering a number of suggestions to improve it in a context of increasing transnationalisation of the market for legal services He added that Hosier s innovative approach to the problem of lawyers misconduct is in particular worth noting This aspect of her work has the potential to help alleviate a problem which has been extremely costly for both the legal profession and wider society alike Her doctoral research also provides a valuable insight into the impact of the Troika upon the regulation of the legal profession in so called bailed out countries Professor Pech concluded that the author should be congratulated for having made an exceptional contribution to the current debate on the regulation of the legal profession both nationally and internationally I have no doubt that her original and thought provoking work will be useful to policy makers and scholars alike This book features Professor John Flood s new substantive introduction explaining the worldwide implications of professional reform efforts the financial crisis that precipitated them and the relation to regulation of the legal profession in other countries It also includes the author s notable examination of the effect of the Troika s bailout conditions on law reform possibilities in Ireland This part of the book was presented in the US at the 2013 annual conference of the Law and Society Association Finally the book adds a section on 2014 developments in reform efforts in Ireland A powerful new addition to the Dissertation Series from Quid Pro Books Social Computing, Behavioral-Cultural Modeling and Prediction William G. Kennedy,Nitin Agarwal,Shanchieh Jay Yang,2014-03-14 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 7th International Conference on Social Computing Behavioral Cultural Modeling and Prediction SBP 2014 held in Washington DC USA in April 2014 The 51 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 101 submissions The SBP conference provides a forum for researchers and practitioners from academia industry and government agencies to exchange ideas on current challenges in social computing behavioral cultural modeling and prediction and on state of the art methods and best practices being adopted to tackle these challenges The topical areas addressed by the papers are social and behavioral sciences health sciences military science and information science Policy Instruments for Environmental and Natural Resource Management Thomas Sterner,Jessica Coria,2013-10-30 Thomas Sterner s book is an attempt to encourage more widespread and careful use of economic policy instruments The book compares the accumulated experiences of the use of economic policy instruments in the U S and Europe as well as in rich and poor countries in Asia Africa and Latin America Ambitious in scope it discusses the design of instruments that can be employed in any country in a wide range of contexts including transportation industrial pollution water pricing waste fisheries forests and agriculture While deeply rooted in economics Policy Instruments for Environmental and Natural Resource Management is informed by political legal ecological and psychological research The new edition enhances what has already been widely hailed as a highly innovative work The book includes greatly expanded coverage of climate change covering aspects related to policy design international equity and discounting voluntary carbon markets permit trading in United States and the Clean Development Mechanism Focusing ever more on leading ideas in both theory and policy the new edition brings experimental economics into the main of its discussions It features expanded coverage of the monitoring and enforcement of environmental policy technological change the choice of policy instruments under imperfect competition and subjects such as corporate social responsibility bio fuels payments for ecosystem services and REDD Problematic Wildlife Francesco M. Angelici,2015-12-18 This book provides insight into the instances in which wildlife species can create problems Some species trigger problems for human activities but many others need humans to save them and to continue to exist The text addresses issues faced by economists and politicians dealing with laws involving actions undertaken to resolve the problems of the interaction between humans and wildlife Here the words problematic species are used in their broadest sense as may be appreciated in the short introductions to the various sections At times the authors discuss special cases while always extending the discussion into a more general and broad vision At others they present real cutting edge analysis of ecological topics and issues The book will be of interest to biologists ecologists and wildlife managers involved in research on wildlife parks and environmental management as well as to government departments and agencies NGOs and conservation wildlife organizations Even those in contact with nature such as hunters herders and farmers will be able to find a great deal of important information Specific case studies are selected from among the most significant and prevalent cases throughout the world A total of 26 papers have been selected for this book written by zoologists biologists and ecologists Many have an interdisciplinary approach with contributions by economists criminologists technical specialists and engineers
