Mayer, 2013-05-09 This provocative and accessible narrative recounts the inside story of how a broad based people s campaign was mobilized and subsequently succeeded in pushing Congress to create a consumer financial regulator with clout What would Congress do if anything to tame Wall Street and the nation s lenders following the financial meltdown of 2008 This book tells the true story of how an alliance of consumer civil rights labor fair lending and other progressive groups emerged to effectively challenge Wall Street and its official protectors and to win substantial new legislative reforms actions that resulted in the Dodd Frank Act and its path breaking Consumer Financial Protection Bureau CFPB Based largely on in depth interviews with the leading activists involved in the campaign Financial Justice The People s Campaign to Stop Lender Abuse taps into the world of contemporary citizen movements to present evidence into the conditions that determine the success and failure of social movement campaigns It goes well beyond general global variables such as effective management to show how the formal and informal rules adopted by a campaign can serve to preclude fragmentation and incoherence Material Powers Tony

Bennett, Patrick Joyce, 2013-05-13 This edited collection is a major contribution to the current development of a material turn in the social sciences and humanities It does so by exploring new understandings of how power is made up and exercised by examining the role of material infrastructures in the organization of state power and the role of material cultural practices in the organization of colonial forms of governance A diverse range of historical examples is drawn on in illustrating these concerns from the role of territorial engineering projects in seventeenth century France through the development of the postal system in nineteenth century Britain to the relations between the state and road building in contemporary Peru for example The colonial contexts examined are similarly varied ranging from the role of photographic practices in the constitution of colonial power in India and the measurement of the bodies of the colonized in French colonial practices to the part played by the relations between museums and expeditions in the organization of Australian forms of colonial rule These specific concerns are connected to major critical re examination of the limits of the earlier formulations of cultural materialism and the logic of the cultural turn The collection brings together a group of key international scholars whose work has played a leading role in debates in and across the fields of history visual culture studies anthropology geography cultural studies museum studies and literary studies
